

respect to the dissolution of the House of Assembly. Both these documents are, in themselves, poor, spiritless affairs, totally beneath criticism, and hardly worthy of even a passing remark; but connected with the attempt made by His Excellency upon the rights, privileges and liberties of the people of Prince Edward Island, they have acquired a consequence from their connection, which will entitle them to consideration.

Sir Alexander now begins perhaps for the first time to perceive that though his person may be withdrawn from the scene of his former misdeeds, his reputation will still remain behind; and, accordingly apprehensive that the latter will not be spared—he has endeavored to anticipate censure by entering upon his defence, or the rather, by a bold assertion of his right to act as he has done, to silence his accusers. He is mistaken. We deny the right that he claims of acting on his own responsibility, but we will continue to treat the matter with that seriousness that its importance deserves. Sir Alexander we took upon as a state criminal whom we will endeavor as much as in us lies to have brought to a fair trial. We cannot with him "a good deliverance," for that would be to pay for a legal confirmation of those principles of despotic and tyrannical rule by which he has been actuated, and which we hoped had disappeared with the advent of Responsible Government. On the contrary, we shall exert ourselves to have him convicted, that future Governors may take warning from his fate; and, which is of much more consequence, that there may be some legal definition of what constitutes Responsible or Self Government.

TO THE EDITOR OF HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

Sir,
There was a large number of signatures to a petition, which was presented to His Excellency, the Lieut. Governor, as being the prayer of persons residing on and in the District of the Murray Harbour Road, to dissolve the late House of Assembly. I herewith inform you, for public information, that two Schoolmasters (whose conduct I shall bring forward at the proper quarter) forged the principal part of these names, without either the presence or knowledge of the persons alluded to; and I am directed by most of them, to expose such conduct, as well as to represent to the public their entire disapprobation of the matter, and also to state that they never intended to support its prayer, or will they now advocate its friends or promoters, at the ensuing election.

I am, Sir,
Yours truly,
William DOWSE.

Charlottetown, 23d May, 1854.

Sir,
Your Excellency having thought fit to dissolve the House of Assembly, it is not my intention, longer, to continue a Member of your Excellency's Government, and I beg leave to tender your Excellency's acceptance the resignation of my seat in the Executive Council. Having now been a Member of the House of Assembly for a period of 16 years, and during that time, having served in five parliaments, consecutively, I trust it may not be considered presuming in me, to state to your Excellency, freely, the reasons which have impelled me to this step. From appeals made to Her Majesty by the House of Assembly of this Colony in the Sessions of 1840, 1850, Her Majesty was pleased to accede to the policy of granting to its inhabitants Responsible or self Government, and your Excellency's assumption of the Government of this Colony, in the year 1851, was considered an appropriate time for carrying that system into effect; and in the month of April, of that year, a Bill for a permanent civil list, having passed the Legislature, and other preliminary arrangements having been completed, Responsible or self Government was then introduced, and a new Executive Council was formed, in accordance therewith. I was one of the majority who in 1850 voted for the introduction of the system of Responsible or self Government, and although I was by no means a supporter of those Members of the House of Assembly who were first called on to assist your Excellency in carrying it into effect, I was led to expect, that under your Excellency's administration, Responsible Government would have been carried out in good faith; and at that time, I believe your Excellency frequently declared that it was your intention to do so, and that whatever change might be produced in the persons composing the Majority of the Representatives of the people, you would feel it your duty, to unite cordially with them, and administer the Government with equal justice and consideration towards them, that had been observed towards any other party who may have previously formed your Government. On the 9th February last, the new House of Assembly, the first one returned under your Excellency's administration, was called together, and, in a few days afterwards, that House declared by its vote, a want of confidence in your Excellency's advisers. A new Government was formed thereupon, of which I had the honor to become a member. Throughout the Session, which has so lately terminated, the present government was supported on every public measure, by a strong, and I do not hesitate to add, a highly respectable and intelligent majority in the Assembly; and I believe that, since their appointment to office, the Members of your present administration have in all their communications evinced the utmost courtesy and respect towards your Excellency, as well as their readiness to co-operate with you faithfully, in all matters in which the public interest and prosperity of the country were concerned. I extremely regret, however, that I am now compelled to state to your Excellency, that it appears to me quite manifest, that the policy pursued by your Excellency towards the Members of your Government, has been of a very opposite nature to that which I conceive they had a right to expect. And a conviction is now forced upon my mind, that your Excellency instead of extending to them your countenance, and that constitutional support to which they were entitled, has allied yourself to a particular party to govern for their interests rather than for the welfare of the people at large. Against the unanimous opinion of your Council, your Excellency has determined to dissolve the House of Assembly, and that you have done so by the advice and unconstitutional interference of persons immediately interested in obtaining for themselves, the principal offices of Emolument, in the gift of the Government, is a fact, which has now become too clearly revealed to admit of the slightest doubt. These persons, most of whom were Members of your Excellency's late Government, were in constant intercourse with your Excellency during the whole of the late Session of the Legislature, and it is a matter of Public Notoriety that they originated a Petition for a dissolution of the House of Assembly, and that the Emolumentaries employed by them, in order to procure Signatures in the country districts, industriously circulated reports that you had expressed a desire for a change in the Government and that if Petitions were numerously signed, you would endeavor to effect such change by dissolving the House of Assembly. Having pursued the communication of my Colleagues, dated the 16th May instant, in answer to your Excellency's Letter addressed to us on the 6th instant, I fully subscribe to all that therein stated; and I must express my deep regret, that your Excellency should be induced to adopt a course which I conceive totally unwarranted by any public expediency at the present time, while its consequences must prove so highly inconvenient to the great mass of the population, if not dangerous to the public peace of the Colony. Inconvenient because on account of this unusually late spring, the Agriculturists will be for a considerable time yet engaged in putting their Crops into the ground; and dangerous because in some of the country Districts, the people have been worked up to a state of excitement which may lead to serious collisions at the hustings.

I have the honor to be, your Excellency's Most obedient humble servant
DONALD MONTGOMERY.

To His Excellency Sir A. Bannerman, &c. &c.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, 25th May, 1854.

Sir,
I have received your letter of the 23d inst., tendering the resignation of your seat in the Executive Council. You have also considered it necessary to favor me with a sketch of your political progress for the last sixteen years, during five consecutive Parliaments, and I quite believe you, when you say, "You were by no means a supporter of those Members of the House of Assembly, forming part of the late Government."

There are other statements, however, in your letter, which I cannot permit you, or any other individual to make, without giving them the most unqualified contradiction. You boldly assert, that "I have dissolved the House of Assembly by the advice and unconstitutional interference of persons immediately interested in obtaining for themselves the principal Offices of Emolument in the gift of the Government, a fact which has now become too clearly revealed to admit of the slightest doubt."

Now, I beg to inform you, Sir, that this assumed "fact" of yours, is totally devoid of truth; no member of the late Government having tendered me advice of any kind, or shown the remotest disposition to interfere with me constitutionally or unconstitutionally. I cannot be responsible, as you seem to think, for what emolumentaries may say, when you state, that they were induced to do so by the influence of the House of Assembly, by the advice and unconstitutional interference of persons immediately interested in obtaining for themselves the principal Offices of Emolument in the gift of the Government, a fact which has now become too clearly revealed to admit of the slightest doubt."

Now, I beg to inform you, Sir, that this assumed "fact" of yours, is totally devoid of truth; no member of the late Government having tendered me advice of any kind, or shown the remotest disposition to interfere with me constitutionally or unconstitutionally. I cannot be responsible, as you seem to think, for what emolumentaries may say, when you state, that they were induced to do so by the influence of the House of Assembly, by the advice and unconstitutional interference of persons immediately interested in obtaining for themselves the principal Offices of Emolument in the gift of the Government, a fact which has now become too clearly revealed to admit of the slightest doubt."

There is only one other statement in your letter which requires to be noticed: you say, "These persons, most of whom were members of my late Government, were in constant intercourse with me during the whole of the late Session of the Legislature." This is also devoid of truth; for the members of the late Government, instead of holding "constant intercourse" with me, have studiously acted in an opposite way; several of them have certainly paid their respects to me here, or at the Colonial Office, and with others I have held friendly conversations, in open day, in the Market-square and Streets of Charlottetown. If it be true, as I have heard, that some of the inhabitants are always in attendance to watch the Lieutenant Governor on such occasions, it may in future save them trouble if they know, I am not to be deterred from conversing with any person when I may think proper. I apprehend Her Majesty does not exclude from Her presence, the members who composed her last administration; and while I remain in that Colony, which bears the name of the Queen of England's Royal Father, I shall always continue to follow Her illustrious example.

I now accept your resignation, and have the honor to remain, Sir,
Your obedient, humble servant,
A. BANNERMAN,
Lieut. Governor.

To the Free and Independent Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN;
HAVING had the honor to represent you in the first House of Assembly under Responsible Government, in this Island, and not being aware that any part of my political conduct had merited your disapprobation, I again offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages. My political principles are unchanged; and should you again honor me with your confidence, you shall always find me the same unflinching, uncompromising character that I trust you that know me, have ever found me to be, unaltered by the smiles of those above me, and equally undismayed by their frowns.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your most obedient Servant,
NEIL McNEILL.

Crapaud, 29th May, 1854. 2w.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and County.

GENTLEMEN.
His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor having thought proper to dissolve the House of Assembly, you are called upon a third time within less than twelve months to choose persons to represent your interests in that branch of the Legislature.
I again offer myself as a candidate for your suffrages, and respectfully request your support. Having been handsomely returned by you at Eight different Elections in succession, and my political principles not having undergone any change, I deem it unnecessary to repeat them to you.

I regret that the Bill for the exclusion of married officers from the Legislature was rejected by the Legislative Council. Had it become law, it is not likely that you would have been called upon, so very soon, to engage in another General Election. The leading Members of the Legislative Council, however, prefer that law, or rather which admits of their holding married offices, although wholly irresponsible to the people; they therefore threw out the Bill; and deeming that it would pass at another Session of the same House, they addressed the Lieutenant Governor in such terms as to procure a dissolution, and thereby to afford an opportunity, during the excitement of a General Election, for office-hunters to misrepresent the object and effect of the Bill, and to make the people believe that it was calculated to destroy Responsible Government. The purpose and aim of the Bill, however, Gentlemen, was the very reverse: it was, in fact, a measure upon the same principle as the Act of Assembly lately passed and now in force in Canada.

I have every confidence that your votes will enable me again to introduce this Bill—and if the constituencies throughout the Island, prove equally intelligent with yourselves, I cannot have a doubt that a majority will be returned in the new House of Assembly, not only favorable to the measure, but such as, under the auspices of a new Lieutenant Governor of much Colonial experience, will convince the Legislative Council that they must offer no further obstruction to its becoming the law of the Colony.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obed^t Servant,
EDWARD PALMER.

May 30th, 1854. 1st Adv Ex.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN:
AT the earnest request of many of my respected friends amongst you, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages, at the approaching General Election, to represent your interests in the House of Assembly, for this my native District.

This being my first attempt to move in political life, I can safely assure you, that I have no party predilections, and that such measures only as I shall consider for the best interests of the people, and the promotion of the prosperity of the Island in general, and of your local District in particular, shall have my support, no matter from whom the same may emanate.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your most obed^t Servant,
JOHN COLL MCDONALD.
