LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

The Dominion Government is in communication with the Colonial office with a view of getting South Africa to extend its preference to Canada on goods on which specific duties are charged. The South Africa preference is now confined to articles on which duties are at valorem. It is understood that the Liberal-Conservative Conference for P. E. Island is to be called this month according to the constitution, for the purpose of organization. The various polling divisions should be prepared and ready with their delegates to meet at short notice—organize and be ready for every emergency is the word.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

One man was killed and another severely injured in the Grand Central Station of the New York Central and Hudson River Railway on the 8th, when a train of seven cars when backing into the station crashed through the buffers at the end of the track and ran upon the station platform where several persons were standing.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

Twenty-one miners were killed in an explosion of mine gas in a shaft of the Cooper mine Company, at Coaldale, West Virginia at noon on Friday last. Somewhat of a sensation has been created in the business circles of Montreal by the disappearance of Hugh Allan, a well known cheese exporter.

The Prices.

Table listing various commodities and their prices, including Butter, Eggs, Flour, and other goods.

CLOTHING CLEANED.

All kinds of gentlemen's and ladies' clothes cleaned, colored and repaired. Experience in different parts of the world has taught me how to do the work thoroughly and well. Charges moderate. Also tailoring in all branches. H. McMillan, Lower Prince Street. Give me a call.

OAK BRAND TEA.

In order to introduce our Oak Brand Tea we will ship and prepay freight to any station or shipping point on P. E. Island an 18 lb. caddy, and if you are not satisfied in every way return at our expense, and we will refund your money. Cut this out and enclose $4.00 and mail to us.

A terrible accident marred the wedding which took place on the 8th, at Barton, Quebec. After the wedding the party started to drive to that place in six rigs. Arriving at the railway crossing, the first five carriages passed over safely but the last conveying the bride's parents, Calixte Lavale and wife and son was struck by the Portland-Montreal express. All three were killed.

In entering the harbor of Boston during a heavy fog on Thursday last the Plant Line Steamer Anamora was obliged to anchor in Black Rock Channel to await clearing weather. On the ebb of the tide she grounded in close proximity to a dangerous ledge but escaped. A fleet of low boats was sent to her assistance and on the high tide she floated and proceeded to her dock apparently not having sustained serious injury.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

A disastrous fire occurred Tuesday night of last week at Stanhope Road about three miles from Peake's Station in which a barn belonging to Mr. Thomas Goodwin, with its contents, and three horses were destroyed. The fire broke out about seven o'clock and lasted about an hour during which time the flames could be seen for miles around. How the fire originated has not been learned.

On Sunday last, the sermon at the high Mass in the Cathedral was preached by Rev. Thomas H. Trainor, of Kingston, Lot 81, who was recently ordained in Montreal. His text were the words of the Apostle's Creed: "I believe in the Holy Catholic Church," and his discussion was an eloquent and powerful one, and arguments to prove his thesis. He showed how all the ceremonies and the liturgy of the church show forth her holiness. The Sacraments, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and the lives and works of her Saints all proclaim her holy.
