Bapaume road

There has been no great activity on any of the other fronts in Europe except in Transylvania, where the Austro-Germans have repulsed the Roumanians at Hermannstadt. Vienna says the Teutonic forces also have occupied the towns east and southeast of the town after violent fighting. The battle in this section, however, has not been finished. The intense fighting in the region of Koryniza, on the eastern front in Russia, appears to have come to an end. Berlin and Vienna say that the Russian prisoners have increased to 41 officers and 3,000 men. The forces under Prince Leopold of Bavaria here also took two cannon and 93 machine guns. Berlin records the repulse of a Russian advance near Godzichki.

Petrograd claims the defeat of a German attack near Cukalov.
Fighting continues in the Carpathians, but there has been no change in the battle lines. In Macedonia the Entente Allied forces are withstanding Bulgarian attacks. The Serbians have checked four attacks against positions on the Kaimakalan plateau, and the French have withstood assaults along the Broda river.

London, Oct. 2.—British troops in the centre along the Somme line have an advance on a three thousand yard front from the east of Eaucourt l'Abbaye to the Albert-Bapaume road, according to the official statement from headquarters, issued at midnight.
Eaucourt l'Abbaye itself is reported to be in the hands of the British. The operations were aided by the armored "tanks."
The text reads:

"Sunday afternoon south of the Ancre our centre attacked and captured the whole of its objective on a front of 3,000 yards from a point east of Eaucourt l'Abbaye to the Albert-Bapaume road, northeast of the Destrement Farm. The village of Eaucourt l'Abbaye is reported to be in our hands. "Further east we pushed our outposts well behind the original front line.
More than 300 prisoners have already been taken, and our casualties up to the present are small. "In the action the new armored cars have done valuable work in clearing the enemy trenches behind the infantry advance. "The village of Transloy (north of Morval) was effectively bomarded by our artillery, and an ammunition dump blown up.

"On Saturday two aeroplanes were successfully bombarded by our aeroplanes and at least one machine was destroyed. In the fighting over this front four enemy machines were brought down. One of our machines is missing. "Enemy troops and transports were repeatedly attacked from the air with machine guns, and in one instance several hundred infantry were dispersed.
"Since Sept. 18 we have taken, between the Ancre and the Somme, twenty-four field guns, three field howitzers and three heavy howitzers. "From July to Sept. 30, in the same area, we made prisoners 588 officers and 26,147 other ranks."

London, Oct. 1.—A British official communication issued this evening, and dealing with the fighting in Macedonia, says:
"During the night our artillery has been active. "On the Struma front, below the Orjak, our troops took possession of a portion of the Bulgarian lines.
"After stubborn fighting and heavy artillery preparation our gains were extended during the evening. Six counter-attacks were successfully broken up during the day. A hundred prisoners already have been passed back. "The fighting continues."

London, Oct. 1.—The British official statement on the campaign in France issued tonight reads:

"On the battle field south of the Ancre there is no change in the general situation. Heavy shelling continued during the day, especially at the Destrement Farm and ground the Staff and Zollern redoubts. "Our line was slightly advanced south of Eaucourt l'Abbaye. In the Thiepval area we took prisoners three officers and 164 other ranks. "On Thursday two enemy aeroplanes were brought down, in addition to the one mentioned in last night's report."

Paris, Oct. 1.—In fighting at close quarters on the Somme front last night the French pushed forward their lines near Morvar and Clerly, it was announced, officially today. "On the Somme front there was considerable artillery activity," the statement says. "We made some progress during the night by hand-grenade fighting to the southeast of Morval, along the Somme and to the southeast of Clerly. "Elsewhere on the front there was intermittent cannonading."

The ladies of Eastern Kings make a splendid exhibit in the Altogether the Exhibition is in a high degree creditable to Eastern Kings. At 1 o'clock the Exhibition was declared formally opened by his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, who delivered an excellent and appropriate speech.

A Touching Tribute;

Since the outbreak of the war the French government and people have done many things to win for them the esteem and honor of the world. The splendid gallantry of the French troops, the noble devotion of the French women and the great-hearted sincerity with which all classes of the people have entered into this war has had few parallels in history. Every act of the French nation since the war began has been worthy of the most glorious traditions of that nation, whose history for deeds of valor and sacrifice is not eclipsed in richness even by that of Britain.
Quite recently the French government has given evidence of the grace and chivalry so characteristic of France. Official France has honored the British soldiers buried there by giving to the British title deeds forever of the land occupied by British dust. This fine act has aroused much emotion in Britain and London papers refer to it with deep feeling. One of the finest tributes to any paid by the British press is contained in the London Daily Telegraph. It is as follows:

"Without display and without sentimentality the government of the republic has simply consecrated and set apart forever in special honor the cemeteries where the dead rest. Truly the grace of France fails never. They could have done nothing to give deeper or more serious pleasure to England; nothing that was more truly in accord with her own national tradition; nothing that better went hand-in-hand with our own ingrained habit of respect for the acres of God wherever they may be found.
We have in our minds a fairly good idea of where those graves lie and what they look like. Here the cross that means so much to one may be clustered among a group within and beneath the shadows of a church of which the pierced spire and battered interior tell their own tale; or it may be set up there, within a peaceful enclosure under the poplars of the Yser or the Canal. Here it may be inside a tidy and orderly court, surrounded by walls not so high as to prevent the sea wind playing with the ribands of a few wreaths; or there, by itself, in rear of a wrecked cottage with a crudely made fence around it.
But wherever the grave may lie, there will be comfort in the thought that long after our own day it will still be spared and kindly thought upon. Yet this is not all that the French proposal will effect. Each of these countless little enclosures will be working in silence for the continued goodwill of two nations. From the little patch of ex-territorialized ground the dead will speak for generations. For we have given the best of England to France, voluntarily every one, and the French will not fail to understand the meaning of Rupert Brooke's lines: If I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is forever England.
It is a gift of English earth that we are making, the best earth we have, earth that France has shown her anxiety to honor.

and in the belief that in some way the loyalty of each man to a common cause will still be speaking to ears that understand, we may leave our dead in all gratitude and in full understanding to the loving care of France."

Mr. Francis Koughan has been appointed Registrar of Deeds, by the Provincial Government. We congratulate Mr. Koughan on his appointment and the Government on their excellent choice.

Favored by splendid weather the Exhibition for Eastern Kings held in Souris yesterday is a complete success.
All incoming trains were crowded and the number of exhibits is much larger than ever before.
The entries of horses number upwards of 120 and other animals in like proportion. The exhibits in the drill shed are also excellent in every respect. There is a fine show of fruit and roots and vegetables are also fine.

The latest war news is equally as good as any we have had.
The Dominion of Canada war loan of one billion dollars has been subscribed twice over. Applications were received for upwards of two hundred million dollars.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Land Regulations

Any person who is the sole bread winner, or any male over 18 years of age who has a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of the homesteader.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead or a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader if of good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption for a period of each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchase of homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

The latest war news is equally as good as any we have had.

been subscribed twice over. Ap-
dollars.

The interned German cruisers,
"Kron Prinz Wilhelm" and Prinz Erich Friedrich," left New Port News Virginia the other day for the Philadelphia navy yard, as the Portsmouth yard is overcrowded. Eight American battleships convoyed them.

It is now learned that no fewer than five Prince Edward Islanders were elected in the British Columbia elections. They are as follows:—Liberals—Dr. W. J. H.
Sutherland, Revelstoke, a native of Sea View; Dr. J. D. McLean, Greenwood, a native of Colwood.

Hon John Costigan, Senator, died in Ottawa at the house of his daughter, Mrs. Walter Arn-strong, on Friday last, Sept. 29th.
He became a member of the House of Commons in the first election after Confederation in 1867, and continued a member of the Commons till 1907, when he was appointed to the Senate. He was a member of the Governments Sir John McDonald, Sir John Thompson, Sir McKenzie Bowell and Sir Charles Tupper. R. I. P.

Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance, has been invited to England by the Imperial government and probably will proceed to London on a brief visit in the near future. A despatch has been received from Right Hon. Bonar Law, the colonial secretary, conveying to the minister of finance the warmest congratulations of the chancellor of the exchequer upon the success of the war loan.
Sir Thomas has not visited England since the war began and there are many matters connected with the finances of the Dominion which he will discuss with the Imperial authorities. They have expressly invited him to go.

CONSECRATION—Most Rev.
Mgr. Alfred A. Sinnott, Archbishop of Winnipeg was Consecrated by his Excellency Mgr. P. F.
Stagni, Apostolic Delegate, in the latter's Chapel in his Palace at Ottawa, on Thursday Sept. 28th.
The Most Rev. Consecrator, was assisted by his Grace, Archbishop Gauthier, of Ottawa and Rt. Rev. Bishop McNally of Calgary. Archbishop Sinnott is expected to remain with the Apostolic Delegate until November when he will proceed west to assume his new duties.
The best wishes of his numerous friends in this native Province will go with him to his new Archiepiscopal see.

ORDINATION—In St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Sunday last, Revs. J. E. Dougan and F. J.
Hughes were ordained priests by his Lordship, Bishop O'Leary, at the 11 o'clock Mass. His Lordship was assisted by Rev. Maurice McDonald as arch-deacon, Rev.
Frank McQuaid as sub-deacon and Rev. Father Hughes as Master of ceremonies. The priests ordained were assisted by Rev.
W. E. Cameron and Rev. C. J.
McDonald. The other priests present in the sanctuary and participating in the ceremonies were Revs. Dr. McLellan, Owen Kiggins and Joseph Rooney. The sermon of the occasion was preached by Rev. A. McAulay.
His text was the 16th verse of the XV chapter of the gospel of St. John: "You have not chosen me; but I have chosen you; and appointed you, that you should go and should bring forth fruit, and your fruit should remain." This was a learned and admirable discourse on the nature and efficacy of the priesthood. The Rev. preacher pointed out that the priesthood existed from the very time of Adam; but it was not the sacramental priesthood until Christ made it so. He quoted abundant texts of Scripture to prove the institution, the power and efficacy of the Christian priesthood. After Mass the newly ordained priests bestowed their blessing on the large congregation present. ad Multos Annos

Be Careful

OF YOUR EYES. Don't let them become strained or overtaxed when the use of glasses will obviate any weakness or difficulty of vision. If you need spectacles the sooner you will get them the greater service they will render you. If you will let us examine your sight, we can determine the question of what you need, and supply the proper glasses.

By procuring from us you save the exorbitant charges too often made by agents and avoid the possibility of getting a wrong glass with no chance of changing.

If not convenient to come in, and you send us some particulars of your require-of eyeglasses or spectacles out for you to try, but a visit to us would be more satisfactory.

VOL-PEEK mends holes in all kinds of Pots, Pans Boilers and all other kitchen utensils, in two minutes, at a cost of less than 1/2c per mend. Mends Graniteware, Iron Tinwares, Copper, Brass, Aluminium, etc.

Easy to use, requires no tools and mends quickly Every housewife knows what it is to discover a hole in a pan, kettle or boiler just when she wants to use that article.
Few things are more provoking and cause more inconvenience, a little leak in a much wanted pot or pan will often spoil a whole morning's work.

The housewife has, for many years been wanting something with which she could herself, in her own home, mend such leaks quickly, easily and permanently, and she has never found it.

What has been needed is a mender like VOL-PEEK, that will repair the article neatly and quickly and at the same time be always at hand, easily applied and inexpensive.

A package of "VOL-PEEK" will mend from 30 to 50 air sized holes.

"VOL-PEEK" is in the form of a still putty, simply cut off a small piece enough to fill the hole, then Burn the mend over the flame of a lamp, candle or open fire for two minutes, then the article will be ready for use.
