Notice to Soldiers on Harvest Leave.

Attention is directed to a recent announcement published in the Press by the Military Service Branch, Department of Justice, regarding extensions to be granted to men EXEMPTED AS FARMERS.

It is pointed out that this DOES NOT IN ANY WAY AFFECT MEN WHO HAVE BEEN ORDERED BY THE REGISTRAR TO REPORT TO DEPOT BATTALIONS and who have thereafter leave of absence from the Military Authorities.

Once a man has been ordered to report for duty by the Registrar he leaves the jurisdiction of the Registrar and comes under that of the Department of Militia and Defence, and is to be considered as a soldier. This applies to men of the 20 to 22 Class who have been ordered to report by the Registrar in virtue of the cancellation of exemptions by Order-in-Council of the 20th April last, as well as to those ordered to report in the usual way on refusal of claim for exemption, or on expiration of exemption granted.

All men, accordingly, who have been ordered to report, and are therefore SOLDIERS, and who have subsequently been granted harvest leave by the military authorities MUST, NOTWITHSTANDING THE NOTICE ABOVE REFERRED TO, REPORT ON THE EXPIRATION OF THAT LEAVE, unless they are notified to the contrary by their Commanding Officer or by general notice published by the Department of Militia and Defence.

Progress of the War

London Oct. 25.—On several of the most important sectors in France, from the region of Valenciennes to the east of Le Cateau north of Laon, between the Oise and the Serre rivers, and on the front from the Meuse river to the vicinity of Grand Pre, battles of a sanguinary character are being fought. In those the British, French and American troops everywhere are making progress against the stubbornly resisting Germans. In Belgium the Allied forces, owing to the rapid retreat of the enemy, and the flooded condition of the lowlands, have not yet been able to come in full fighting contact with the Germans, but doubtless a few days more will see them again hard after their quarry and driving him farther toward his own frontier.

South of Valenciennes the British Third and Fourth Armies, with which Americans are co-operating, have continued successfully to press onward with Mons and Mauberge their objectives. Valenciennes is gradually being enveloped, and soon is destined to be pinched out of the fighting line by turning movements from the north and south in the manner generally adopted in the present day tactics when it is more desirable to envelope a strong position than to waste life and limb in reaching the objective by a frontal attack. The Germans in this region continue to use numerous machine guns to retard the advance of Field Marshal Haig's men, and the artillery of both sides is violently active. British aviators are materially aiding the offensive by dropping bombs behind the line or flying low and cutting troop formations to pieces with machine gun fire.

South of the Oise River the French are making sharp thrusts against the enemy with the intention of clearing out the entire triangle between Flavigny and Mont-Cornet, and taking all the railroad lines within this region and also blotting out the salient that still exists there. The Germans are strongly counter attacking on all the fronts of attack, but the French have warded off their efforts to regain lost territory and have gained ground south of Mont-Cornet, one of the principal railway junctions in this region. North of Grand Pre, and north of Verdun, in the sector lying between the Meuse River and north of the Argonne Forest, the Americans have cut further, and deeply, into the enemy's line, despite the continued extremely heavy use of machine guns and artillery by the Germans. American aviators are dropping bombs behind the enemy lines, while enemy airmen are returning the compliment by bombing towns inside the American front.

London, Oct. 26.—The British third and fourth armies continue to occupy the center of the stage in the struggle to clear the Germans out of France. The attacks by Byng and Rawlinson southeast of Valenciennes are proceeding highly successfully and encourage the hope that the enemy will be forced to make wide retirements both north and south of this battle-front. The loss of artillery reported by Field Marshal Haig today is more serious to the enemy than his loss of men. The shortage of guns, the lack of munitions and the exhaustion of men all help to explain the quickness with which the Germans surrender now when they see the situation is hopeless.

It is understood that low morale is not general in the enemy's ranks. The Prussians and Bavarians still fight as well as ever. The oldest and youngest soldiers resist stubbornly, but those who have seen years of fighting, who are sick of the war and its horrors, and who think only of peace seek safety quickly. The day when the German soldier considered it an honor to give his life for his fatherland has passed.

London, Oct. 26.—Nine thousand and 150 guns have been captured by the British in their attacks against the Germans, according to Field Marshal Haig's communication issued tonight. South of Valenciennes, the British have reached the entire railway line on the front between Le Quesnoy and Maing. The text of the communication follows: "We have continued our advance on the battlefront south of the River Scheldt. We have captured Seppennes and Quenay and reached the line of the Le Quesnoy-Valenciennes Railway from the northwest of Le Quesnoy to the east of Maing. In the afternoon several counter attacks were repulsed on this front. "During Wednesday and Thursday on the Sambre-Scheldt battlefront, the First, Third and Fourth British Armies captured 9,000 prisoners and 150 guns. North of Valenciennes we have cleared the enemy rearwards from the village of Brulle and Buriden."

London Oct. 25.—An official communication dealing with the operations in Mesopotamia, issued by the war office tonight, says: "On the 18th of October, we were in contact with Turkish forces holding a strong position astride the Tigris near Fatha, where the river flows through the Jebel Hamrin country. On October 23 the enemy retired northward under cover of darkness towards Lestrah, pursued us. "Our forces on the main road to Mosul by way of Kerkuk drove the Turkish and calvary out from Taik and advanced to within four miles of Kerkuk."

London, Oct. 27.—The Germans launched heavy counter attacks against the British south of Valenciennes today but were repulsed with losses. Field Marshal Haig reports from headquarters tonight. The statement reads: A hostile counter-attack preceded by a heavy bombardment was carried out this morning against our line in the neighborhood of Englefontain; the enemy was repulsed, and many dead. Our positions were maintained intact. "Another counter-attack was launched in the afternoon against our positions in the neighborhood of Arras; this was also repulsed with heavy losses. We captured a few prisoners. "There were patrol actions on different parts of the front."

Paris, Oct. 27.—A marked advance by the French troops in the sector between the Oise and Serre rivers is recorded in the official communication issued by the war office tonight. Numerous villages have been captured and at certain points the advance amounted to about five miles. The statement reads: The enemy, pressed hard by our advanced guards continues his retreat between the Oise and the Serre on a front of more than twenty five kilometers (about fifteen and a half miles). Our advance at certain points exceeded eight kilometers in the course of the day. "On our left we occupied Boesperies, Proix and Maugny, and pushed our advanced elements as far as the outskirts of Guise. "Further south our troops are drawing near the road between Guise and Marie, having attained the general line of Bertaignemont Wood, Landfay-Bertaignemont west of Fanozay. Monceau-La-Neuf and Montigny-sur-Crecy, we took numerous prisoners and captured considerable material."

"Since Oct. 24 the number of prisoners taken by the first army has reached 3,700. "In the body taken by this army in the same period were twenty cannon and several hundred machine guns. "On the Serre front the tenth army in close liaison with the first, have energetically pressed the enemy northward. Our troops have occupied Crecy-Sur-Serre and have gone considerably beyond that point. "West of Chateau-Portien the fighting in the last two days has likewise compelled the enemy to abandon part of his Hunting position, which he had still held between Herpy and Recouvance. Our units are keeping in close contact and are continuing their progress."

London, Oct. 27.—The important city of Aleppo was occupied by British Cavalry and armored cars Saturday morning, says a British official statement issued today on operations in Syria and Palestine. The statement reads: "Our advanced cavalry and armored cars occupied Aleppo on the morning of October 26, after overcoming slight opposition."

Aleppo is a city of Asiatic Turkey, in north Syria, and has a population of 210,000. It is situated on the River Koik in a fine plain, sixty miles southeast of Alexandretta, which is its port, and 195 miles north northeast of Damascus. It has a circumference of about seven miles and consists of the old town and numerous suburbs. Its appearance at a distance is striking, and the houses are well built of stone. On a hill stands the citadel, and at the foot the governor's palace. Previous to 1822 Aleppo contained about 100 mosques, but in that year an earthquake laid the greater part of them in ruins, and destroyed nearly the whole city. The aqueduct built by the Romans is the oldest monument of the town. Among the chief attractions of Aleppo are its gardens in which the pistachio nut is extensively cultivated. Formerly the city was the centre of a great export and import trade, and its manufactures, consisting of cotton, shawls, silks, gold and silver lace, etc. were very valuable, but the earthquake already mentioned and various causes have combined to greatly lessen its prosperity. It still has a trade, however, in wool, cotton silk, wax, skins, soap, tobacco, etc., and imports a certain quantity of European manufactures. Aleppo was a place of considerable importance in remote times. By the Greeks and Romans it was called Beroea. It was conquered by the Arabs in 638 and its original name, Chalybon, was turned into Haleb, whence the Italian form, Aleppo. Of its population about 25,000 are Christians. The language generally spoken is Arabic. Aleppo was a battleground of the Saracens, Crusaders and Turks during the Crusades.

London Oct. 28.—While both Germany and Austria are seeking to secure a cessation of hostilities and Turkey also is reported to be favorably disposed toward peace, the Entente Allied troops on the battlefronts are giving no heed to peace proposals, but are continuing without mercy to drive their foes before them. And in all the battle zones the Allies are meeting with marked success. In France the German battle line is slowly disintegrating under the violence of the Allied offensive; in Northern Italy the Austro-Hungarians are being forced back by the British, French and Italians with heavy losses in men killed, wounded or

Paris, Oct. 28.—Still further progress has been made by the French north west of Guise and they have moved forward to the east of the Peron River beyond the Pargly Wood, the war office announces tonight. The German forces holding the Serre Oise front are in retreat and the whole German line between Chateau Portien and the Argonne is in danger of being turned.
