

SELF-RELIANCE

One of the noblest principles that ever existed in the human mind is that of self-reliance...

Without it, the individual is dependent upon the good-will or caprice of others...

With this view of our necessities and obligations before us, we can afford to smile at the prohibitive passport system...

"WE TOLD YOU SO!" It would be amusing were it not absurd to listen to the wondrous way in which certain Canadian newspapers...

which it is contended is a majority after all, we must also say that the pretence from which the "jubilate" "we told you so," gentlemen draw their startling conclusions...

At every fresh act of injustice heaped upon us, they cry no more!
