Marie Corelli Talks "Right Up"

To the Rev. R. J. Campbell of "The New Theology" fame,

In what she considers an unfair attack on her new book, "The Life Everlasting," Miss Corelli says, "That while preaching in the City Temple, London, he deliberately slanders both myself and my work without compassion. He says there is a certain strain of hard, bitter and intolerant depravity running all the way through it, and I challenged him to prove it. Far from any hard or unsympathetic feeling towards human depravity, I endeavour to show how it may be lessened and finally overcome by one's own noble effort when once we realize the eternal law—that evil is always repaid by evil and good by good."

Every person interested in good fiction and in the social conditions of the people should read "The Life Everlasting." Paper, 50c.; cloth, 75c. Postpaid on receipt of price.

All books by Miss Marie Corelli and the Rev. R. J. Campbell now in stock. Write for list, also for lists of 10, 15, 25 and 30 cent reprints of the world's best novels.

THE NICKEL.

Friday and Saturday.

"A Daughter of Erin,"

A beautiful romance of the Emerald Isle.

This appealing film is an adaptation from the well-known Irish drama, "Kathleen Mavourneen," and it contains all the engrossing features of that popular dramatic offering. The love story of Lawrence and Kathleen, told amid the picturesque scenery of Killarney, needs no introduction, and has only to be seen to be appreciated.

For a Western Maid.

A photo-play of the Sierras, full of the characteristic dash and vigour of the plains.

Mike the Miser.

A charming little story of life on the East Side of New York.

Sleep, Gentle Sleep.

An amusing comedy, based on the ludicrous use of a sleeping draught by a good natured clubman and his devoted spouse.

GEORGE IRVING

Will sing the Egyptian Intermezzo,

"Amina Mine,"

Beautifully Illustrated.

Banner Matinee Saturday.

Musical all the while.

ST. JOHN'S MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

The following is published for the information of the public:—

St. John's Municipal Act, 1902.

Section 36. No person shall build or erect in any place in the town of St. John's, whether on the site of a former building or not, any house, stable or other building, unless he shall have first submitted a plan of such house, stable or other building, to the Council, and such plan shall have been approved of, and consent to the erection of such house, stable or other building shall have been given by the Council; and any house, stable or other building erected without such plan having been submitted and approved of, and consent given as aforesaid, and any house erected otherwise than in accordance with the plan so submitted and approved of as aforesaid, shall be a public nuisance; and the like proceedings shall be had in respect of the same as are provided with respect to other public nuisances; Provided that the Council may, whenever they may think fit, decline to approve of any plan submitted to them, and may refuse their consent to the erection of any house, stable or other building, unless and until they shall be satisfied that the lines of such house, stable or other building, entirely coincide with the lines of street upon which the house, stable or other building, may front or abut, that such house, stable or other building will not from any cause whatever be a source of danger to the neighbouring houses or buildings, that such house, stable or other building, will not be prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of the town or any of them, and also that the style and manner of construction of such house, stable or other building, shall conform as nearly as possible to other buildings either erected or about to be erected on the same street.

NOTE: If there are any breaches of the foregoing after the publishing of this notice the penalty will be put in force.

By order,
J. L. SLATTERY,
Secretary-Treasurer.
