$50	$25
$10

and 10 Prizes of $5.00 each

Someone in this district is going to be lucky enough to receive a New Ford Sedan, fully equipped and ready to run on Monday, June 30th., absolutely free. Fifteen other persons are going to be handed $310.00 in cash, ranging from $100.00 down to $5.00.

THE PLAN

The plan is simply this:
With every dollar purchase in any of the stores which have entered this Club you will receive one membership ticket.
With every dollar paid on accounts in any of these stores you will receive one membership ticket.

Sign your name and address on each membership ticket and drop them in the box which will be conveniently located near the front of every store.

This contest will commence Tuesday morning, April 1st, and end Monday evening, June 30th, 1924.

On the evening of June 30th, the boxes will be collected by the Committee, taken to the Park, all the tickets well stirred up and some youngster from the audience will draw the tickets.

The first ten tickets drawn will be good for $5.00 each.

The 11th ticket will be good for $10.00;
The 12th ticket will be good for $25.00;
The 13th ticket will be good for $50.00;
The 14th ticket will be good for $75.00;
The 15th ticket will be good for $100.00 and

The 16th ticket will take home the New Ford Tudor Sedan fully equipped and valued at $850.00.

Conditions and details have been made as simple as possible. Remember, all you have to do is sign your name and address on every ticket and drop them in the box at the front of each store.

The Reeves of Malahide and Aylmer will be asked to superintend the drawing. They will choose some youngster from the audience to draw the Lucky Tickets.

In order to make sure that every prize will go to outside members of the Club, all merchants of Aylmer and their immediate families are absolutely barred from receiving tickets.

No person to draw more than one of the Cash Prizes. The Grand Prize open to all.

Every Ticket bearing your Name and Address Gives You Another Chance to Win One of the Prizes. Remember to Ask for Tickets at any of the following places of business:

Martin & Son; Young & Caven; Leeson Bros.; N. B. Pettit; Youell & Wrong; Brown and Erskine; H. L. Charlton; J. Wilson; C. A. Brooks; P. T. King; Estate of F. W. Love; McGregor & Dowson; Henry Corbin; Huron S. Sears;

The Heritage Of The Desert

Charger. He rode bareback except for a blanket strapped upon the back, he carried only a long, thick rope, with a loop and a knot. When he opened the improvised gate, with its sharp bayonet-like branches, the Indian rode into the corral. The watchers climbed to the knoll. A snort of a blast of fear came from the Indian's nostrils. August's huge roan showed his teeth; he stamped, and shook his head as if to rid himself of the bitting. The farthest corner of the densely wooded cedar boughs Silvermane edged himself and watched. The roan rode around the corral, circling closer and closer, yet appearing not to enter the stallion. Many rounds he made, closer he got, and always with the same steady gait. Silvermane left the corner and tried another. The old Navajo round brought Charger edging the outer circle of the corral, with the stallion pivoting the centre, ears laid back, eyes staring sparks, fight in every line of his body. And the circle narrowed inward. Suddenly the Navajo sent the roan edging and threw his halter. It
