ward it was not sufficient to break the heavy fall, and he came down striking his stunned and unconscious for a few moments, jured, but after a few minutes he felt well —A correspondent placed the address of a letter on the back of the envelope, the writing being across the folded parts of the envelope. He suggests this plan as an effective method of preventing the illicit opening of letters by steamship. For this ina good one.

PERFUMES.

Crystallized History—That's what someone says words are. But a good Perfume in the essence of sweet words. Petals by the thousands are used to make a single drop of Olay Perfume, but this will stir up more memories in a second than could be read in the ADVER-TISER in a week. Josephine loved music.
History says so, and we remember it as well as we do that her husband became Emperor of France. One reason small, the odor without being reminded of it. But all do not limit their choice to one color. We hear of a lady who puts her letter paper between sachets of different essences, and it is the perfume that she employs that speaks for her. When she uses Tuberosa or Chypre she says: "I am true."
The holder smells of White Rose it is "Adieu," but if it is the tenacious and persistent musk it is "I shall love you." If the odor is strong to understand, so much the worse for him.
The Perfume should be always of the best quality; everything else depends upon your Perfume. Good or bad perfume, good or bad anything else. If you can't see that, there must be something wrong in your eyes—better have them examined for spectacles. We say you can always get the best at Barkwell's, and we think we know.

received showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held by many friends in this city.

—W. J. Reid, wholesale crockery merchant, and Ed. Cleghorn, wholesale grocer, both of London, Ont., were at the Hotel Cadillac yesterday, and had been seeing Detroit and suburbs. Mr. Reid is quite an extensive property owner in this city, and it was a pleasant episode of his visit that he casually met a gentleman of Detroit, drove and loathed with him, had a fine time, and at the very end of it discovered that the gentleman in question is one of his tenants. (Detroit Free Press.)

—The man Hodges, who has been awaiting trial on a charge of murder, is dying.
Justice Street made an order for bail and he has been removed from the jail. The doctor's story of him, had a fine time,
and at the very end of it discovered that

Public Amusements.

An important change has taken place in the management of Whitney's Canadian circuit. Mr. Frank Kitchener, who for the past year has been the popular manager of the London Grand Opera House,

Canadian circuit, including London, Hamilton and Toronto, with headquarters at the last named city. He will spend one day a week in this city and one day in Hamilton.
Mr. Kitchener is a hustler, and will keep things moving. He has appointed Mr. A.
E. Root, as treasurer of the London house, Mr. Joseph Paladino treasurer of the Academy of Music, Toronto, and Mr. Tom Richey will continue to hold his own at the Hamilton Grand Opera House.

A Big Crowd at Port Stanley.

Two of the largest Sunday schools in the city —Queen's Avenue and Wellington Street Methodists—picked at the Port Friday. Nineteen cars carried the crowd, while six or eight went thither by the afternoon "swimmer." The weather was delightful and Port Stanley looked its prettiest. Boating, fishing and bathing had each its quota of admirers, the Joe Milton making a delightful trip before the train left for the city. Under the management of the Sunday school authorities games and races on the hill were provided. Rev. G. W. Henderson, one of the best amateur players in this district, and Superintendent Wm. Jeffery captained two opposing baseball teams from the Wellington Street Church. The score stood 1 to 0 until the end of the fifth inning, but the strain was too great and the runs began to pour in until 22 to 13 in favor of the superintendent's nine told the tale at the finish.
The boys and girls of Queen's Avenue indulged in races of all descriptions. The 9:30 p.m. train carried home the throng, tired but happy.

The Good Old Times.

"Then times were good, Merchants cared not to rush
For any other fare and muck."

But Johnny cake and mush," and the plain and simple fare of the forefathers is done away with. Patent flour and high-seasoned food, and strong drinks, have taken its place, and as a result dyspepsia, impure blood, and diseases of the stomach, liver and lungs are numerous. This great change has led one of the most skillful physicians of the age to study out a remedy for these modern diseases, which he has named his "Golden Medical Discovery." Dr. Pierce in this remedy has found a cure for Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, in its early stages, and "Liver Complaints."
