

THOMAS College
Thomas, Ont.
er the Holidays
ay, Jan. 5.

to obtain a thorough and
EDUCATION or a knowl-
AND, TELEGRAPHY or PHARMACY, should at-the other Business Colleges the present moment (De-double that for the cor-and catalogue.

es & Carl,
& PROPRIETORS.
sest dist

CANDIES. away to children for
of goods bought of the
Dispensing Company,
REET, opposite Market.

BOLD MEDAL, PARIS, 1878.
W. BAKER & CO.'S
Breakfast Cocoa

It is absolutely pure and is soluble.
are used in its preparation. It has been found that three parts of the strength of Cocoa mixed with three parts of sugar and one part of milk, is therefore, nourishing, strengthening, easily digested, and is admirably adapted for invalids as well as for persons in health.
It is sold by Grocers everywhere.
& CO., Dorchester, Mass.

I CURE FITS!

ERILEPSY OR NICKNESS
I warrant my remedy to cure. Because others have failed to do so, I have made a special study of the disease, and have discovered the cause, and have found the remedy. Give Express and Post paid for a trial. H. G. BOOT, M.D., 124 West Adelaide Street.

ERY STABLES.
BROWN LIVERY - NO. 6
East, Dundas Street. Telephone
No. 123.

RY LIVERY
MOND STREET.
Just opened, all new and young horses, new buggies and carriages. Give him a call. H. M. DOUGLAS
Telephone No. 123.

AGE'S NEW LIVERY
Two Doors South of To canness House.
Now kept, best in the city at moderate prices.
Satisfaction guaranteed.
Telephone No. 123.

MARSHALL'S
Coupes, Cabs and Light
Livery.
No. 191 DUNDAS STREET
Marriages in the city. Lowest rates. Accommodation. Large and comfortable. Stable
Telephone No. 123.

ADING HOTELS.
E. MACRAE'S LIVERY
First-class Horses and Carriages. Obliging attendants ready to wait. Particular attention given to boarders.
Terms reasonable. Horses sold at all times. Telephone
No. 123. E. MACRAE, Proprietor.

N HOTEL, PARIS, ONT.
This hotel has recently been renovated with all modern
First-class table and all modern facilities. It is the best place for the commercial traveler and the pleasure seeker. The location is in the heart of the city. E. MACRAE, Proprietor.

MARTIN HOUSE
G STREET, LONDON.
This is a newly built, with modern and is acknowledged to be the best house in the city. E. MACRAE, Proprietor.

USSELL, OTTAWA.
Palace Hotel of Canada.
This hotel is fitted up with all modern and is the best place for the commercial traveler and the pleasure seeker. The location is in the heart of the city. E. MACRAE, Proprietor.

CL METROPOL
SHAKESPEARE HOTEL,
King and York Streets
TORONTO.
This hotel has been thoroughly renovated and is now first-class in every way. It is the best place for the commercial traveler and the pleasure seeker. E. MACRAE, Proprietor.

THE
DAILY EDITIONS
MAMMOTH WEEKLY.

VOL. XXVII., NO. 119.

ROYALTY'S REMAINS.

Dedication of the Imperial Mausoleum at Charlottenburg.

Parnell Will Prosecute the Exeter Gazette for Libel.

Jack the Ripper's Work Rivalled by a Russian Assassin.

Two Murderers Guiltless at Paris—One of the Victims Only Seventeen Years Old.

370 Buildings Burned.

London, March 10.—Japanese advice say a fire took place in the village of Hogogay on Feb. 8, destroying 370 buildings.

Will Resign.

London, March 10.—John Sinclair has decided to resign his seat for the Ayr district. He is an advanced Liberal and a strong supporter of Mr. Gladstone's Irish policy.

Parnell Will Prosecute.

London, March 10.—Mr. Parnell will prosecute the Exeter Gazette for publishing the first forged letter printed by the Times in its article on "Parnellism and Crime," and copying the Times' articles by day.

Sorry.

London, March 10.—A dispatch from South Africa says that the Governor of Natal has expressed disapproval of and regret for the recent demonstration at Johannesburg against the Government of the South African Republic.

The Duke's Travels.

London, March 10.—The Duke of Connaught will start from Bombay for England on Thursday next. He will travel via China, Japan, Vancouver and Quebec.

speech at the banquet Saturday the Duke explored the utter inadequacy of the defenses of Bombay.

The Labor Conference.

London, March 10.—The London Chronicle says Germany is treating with the Vatican with a view to the representation of the Pope at the Berlin Labor Conference.

The chief speaker at the conference proved an obstacle in the path of the German Government.

A Tory Cave.

London, March 10.—The Dublin Freeman's Journal declares that Mr. Jennings' motion in the House of Commons on Friday in giving notice of an addition to Mr. Smith's motion relative to the report of the Parnell Commission reveals a Tory element will secure a majority of only 30 on Mr. Smith's motion.

Russian Cruelty Denounced.

London, March 10.—Two thousand Radical and Socialist met in Hyde Park yesterday to protest against the Russian outrages and called upon the English Government to use its influence with Russia to prevent a recurrence of such acts of cruelty.

The Fight in Formosa.

London, March 10.—Advices from China state that the aborigines of Formosa offered determined opposition to the Chinese troops trying to quell the Formosa riot that the Chinese commander, after 200 of his men had been killed in the campaign, had been obliged to retreat.

Portugal's Persistence.

Lisbon, March 10.—Mr. Megma, director of the Delagoa Bay Railway, has been here ten days trying to effect a settlement of the railway trouble. He has satisfied himself that the Portuguese Government is determined, at whatever cost of money, to keep the railway and its lands, and to exclude England entirely from Mozambique.

The United States' Claim on behalf of the Portuguese.

The United States' claim on behalf of the Portuguese is $700,000. In view of Portugal's deliberate attempt at forcible confiscation of England and the United States will insist upon ample compensation for the outraged citizens.

A Russian "Jack the Ripper."

Moscow, March 10.—A sister of charity named Pinskiy, a woman about 40 years of age and well known for her charitable deeds, has been murdered.

The Imperial Mausoleum.

Berlin, March 10.—The Imperial mausoleum at Charlottenburg was dedicated yesterday. The route to the tomb was lined with sightseers, who respectfully uncovered their heads as the coffin was lowered into the vault.

The Imperial Mausoleum.

The Imperial Mausoleum was dedicated yesterday. The route to the tomb was lined with sightseers, who respectfully uncovered their heads as the coffin was lowered into the vault.

The Imperial Mausoleum.

The Imperial Mausoleum was dedicated yesterday. The route to the tomb was lined with sightseers, who respectfully uncovered their heads as the coffin was lowered into the vault.

The Imperial Mausoleum.

The Imperial Mausoleum was dedicated yesterday. The route to the tomb was lined with sightseers, who respectfully uncovered their heads as the coffin was lowered into the vault.

The Imperial Mausoleum.

The Imperial Mausoleum was dedicated yesterday. The route to the tomb was lined with sightseers, who respectfully uncovered their heads as the coffin was lowered into the vault.

The Imperial Mausoleum.

THE BLENHEIM TRAGEDY.

The Coroner's Investigation Brought to a Close.

Birchell Found Guilty of Willful Murder.

And Mrs. Birchell an Accessory After the Fact.

Testimony of the Last Woman to See the Victim—Five More Mysterious Disappearances.

The Inquest Concluded.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., March 10.—The inquest on the body of F. C. Benwell, the murdered young Englishman, was concluded at Princeton Saturday. Mr. Pelley was taken to Benwell's grave and the remains of the murdered man were placed in the coffin.

He told the coroner's jury the long story of his acquaintance with the victim, and the circumstances of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

THE BLENHEIM TRAGEDY.

The Coroner's Investigation Brought to a Close.

Birchell Found Guilty of Willful Murder.

And Mrs. Birchell an Accessory After the Fact.

Testimony of the Last Woman to See the Victim—Five More Mysterious Disappearances.

The Inquest Concluded.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., March 10.—The inquest on the body of F. C. Benwell, the murdered young Englishman, was concluded at Princeton Saturday. Mr. Pelley was taken to Benwell's grave and the remains of the murdered man were placed in the coffin.

He told the coroner's jury the long story of his acquaintance with the victim, and the circumstances of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

THE BLENHEIM TRAGEDY.

The Coroner's Investigation Brought to a Close.

Birchell Found Guilty of Willful Murder.

And Mrs. Birchell an Accessory After the Fact.

Testimony of the Last Woman to See the Victim—Five More Mysterious Disappearances.

The Inquest Concluded.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., March 10.—The inquest on the body of F. C. Benwell, the murdered young Englishman, was concluded at Princeton Saturday. Mr. Pelley was taken to Benwell's grave and the remains of the murdered man were placed in the coffin.

He told the coroner's jury the long story of his acquaintance with the victim, and the circumstances of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

THE BLENHEIM TRAGEDY.

The Coroner's Investigation Brought to a Close.

Birchell Found Guilty of Willful Murder.

And Mrs. Birchell an Accessory After the Fact.

Testimony of the Last Woman to See the Victim—Five More Mysterious Disappearances.

The Inquest Concluded.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., March 10.—The inquest on the body of F. C. Benwell, the murdered young Englishman, was concluded at Princeton Saturday. Mr. Pelley was taken to Benwell's grave and the remains of the murdered man were placed in the coffin.

He told the coroner's jury the long story of his acquaintance with the victim, and the circumstances of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.

He said that he had seen the victim on the morning of the murder, and that he had seen him on the night of the murder.