ASKIN STREET ANNIVERSARY.
The Askin Street Methodist Church school room was crowded last night on the occasion of the anniversary entertainment, and the affair was a most successful one. The musical and literary programme was excellent, and was rendered altogether by scholars, officers and teachers of the school. "Aunt Jerusha's Album," was one of the features. It was under the direction of Miss Boake and Johnston, and some 30 "pictures" were shown, creating much merriment. An instrumental overture was given by the Misses Phelps, the Messrs. Phelps, Miss Boake and Mr. Howe, and provoked hearty applause. The choruses of the choir of young folks, under the direction of Prof. Phelps, were excellently rendered. A kindergarten class, directed by Miss Boake and Johnston, gave a very clever number. Other numbers were a quartet by Messrs. W. and H. Nettleship, T. Bonser and C. Turner; recitation, Master Earl Lawson; instrumental duet, Roger Phelps and Tony West; kindergarten class, directed by Miss Brenton; solo, Miss Elliott. The superintendent, Dr. Reynolds, made a few happy remarks, in introducing the programme.

FORMAL OPENING

NOVEMBER 15

Victoria Hospital To Be Completed by That Date—Rushing the Work.

The hospital building committee met in regular session last night, and after discussion decided to recommend to the council that the new Victoria Hospital be opened on Nov. 15. The building is not yet completed, but it is hoped that it will be by that time. The building committee will push everything to completion. The council will appoint a committee to make arrangements for the opening. On motion of Ald. Carrothers the committee decided to place men at work on the hospital. Chairman Jolly and the mover were empowered to put the men at work this morning. The contract of Malloch & Co. for putting in elevator will be canceled, as they were to have had them in some time ago.

On motion of Ald. McPhillips, the following names will be submitted to the council from among which to select a second engineer of the hospital: James F. McLean, W. A. Howard, J. H. Foden, W. J. Harding and George Rose.

Ald. Carrothers moved that Mr. Rose be accepted as the second engineer of the hospital. Mr. Rose had applied through Mr. James Magee, for the payment to them of $1,200, on account of an architect's certificate given in August. Payment will be made as soon as certain odds trials are completed.

A number of small items in connection with the building were attended to, and the committee adjourned at 10:30.

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle cured me. I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good."

The drives about Florence are among the loveliest in Italy, and the walks in the old quarter of the town are an unfading source of pleasure.

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles mentioned in the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

FIELD DAY AT THE WESTERN

Thom and Brigham Tied for the Championship.

Lady Spectators Were Present in Force—The Winners.

The field day of the Western University is now eagerly looked forward to by everyone in the city who is interested in keen struggles for athletic supremacy, and judging by the large numbers of young ladies who attended the sports yesterday, it would seem as though they took greater interest in the contests than did their gentlemen friends. The fact that the three courses of the 'Varsity—arts, medicine and divinity—were represented, added greater zest to the sports, because each one did his utmost to maintain supremacy for his class.

Mr. P. H. Thom and S. A. Brigham were close opponents throughout the afternoon, and when the points were counted they stood tied for the championship, and each will receive a gold medal.

During the afternoon the 7th Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Hiscott, furnished music and added materially to the pleasure of the day. The prizes to the successful ones were distributed by Messames Wisnart and Watkins in the convocation hall at the close of the games. In a few words Dr. James told of his pleasure at the large number who had come to witness the sports, and also on account of the spirit of generous rivalry with which they had been contested.

In the hall the boys all showed an abundance of wisdom, especially in etiquette, and showered advisory messages upon those who had to go to the front to receive their prizes. All the old college songs were sung in lusty style, and proved that although the boys had worked hard at the games they were certainly not winded. The following were the successful contestants:

Running broad jump—1 S. Thompson, 2 S. A. Brigham, 3 W. H. Hartley.
Putting 12-pound shot—1 W. H. Hartley, 2 P. Thom, 3 J. M. Webb.
Running high jump—1 P. Thom, 2 W. Hodgins, 3 W. H. Hartley.

100-yards race—1 S. Thompson, 2 G. Elliott, 3 W. Hodgins.
Sack race—1 W. Hodgins, 2 S. Brigham, 3 McDonald.
Half-mile race—1 P. Thom, 2 S. Brigham, 3 W. Ramsay.

Fetigue race—Thompson and Thom, 2 Gunn and Brigham, 3 McGugan and Little.
440-yards race (open)—1 P. W. C. Murray (model school), 2 A. McMahon (L. C. I.), 3 Treasurer (model school).
Team race—1 (senior med.), S. Thompson, G. Elliott, W. Pavey; 2 (divinity), W. Hodgins, W. H. Hartley, W. Ramsay; 3 Smith, F. Morrow.

Tug-of-war—First pull, arts and divinity won from junior med.; second pull, arts and divinity won from senior med. Arts and divinity team—Hartley, Brigham, Rice, Webb, Appleby.

The officers of the day were: Referee, C. B. Edwards; starters, J. D. Balfour, J. Hobbs, W. B. Laidlaw; judges, B. Watkinson, Hadley Williams, Robert Johnston, A. B. Cox; time-keepers, W. J. Tillman, C. B. Cowan; clerks of course, T. B. Howard, J. W. Atkinson; committee, N. C. James (president), I. Webb (secretary), B. Watkins, J. Tupper, R. Ferguson, T. B. Howard.

MUNICIPAL STREET RAILWAY

Proposition Before Detroit Voters at Next Election.

Under a law enacted by the last Michigan Legislature allowing the city of Detroit to change its charter by amendments submitted to the people, two propositions are to be brought before the voters at the coming election relating to the city ownership of street railways. One, of course, will be Governor Pingree's plan by which a commission may buy out the present roads at a valuation of $17,000,000, and run them for the city until direct city ownership is authorized by a constitutional amendment. Immediately, the advocates of this plan claim that the citizens of Detroit would save three-quarters of a million dollars a year through the adoption of three-cent fares, and in a few years even those fares would yield a profit sufficient to extinguish the debt. The enemies of the plan, however, including conservatives as well as radicals, point out that the present street railway system could be duplicated for about $8,000,000, and object to the city's paying $9,000,000 for the right to run street railways along its own streets. The conservatives urge that municipal ownership should either not be tried, or at least should be deferred about twenty years until most of the existing charters expire. The radicals, however, demand that the city shall at once be given the right to build a street railway system for its own, and have secured more than the requisite 5,000 signatures to a petition for a charter amendment authorizing direct municipal construction and operation. The city attorney and the committee of the board of aldermen to whom this proposition was referred attempted to prevent its submission to the voters, on the ground that the Supreme Court would hold municipal construction unconstitutional; but as the advocates of the amendment merely wished to demonstrate the demand of the people for such a privilege, they insisted upon their legal rights as petitioners. They informed the aldermen that those who refused to obey the law and submit a proposition demanded by 5,800 voters would be remembered by the voters on election day, and the board overruled its committee by a majority of 27 to 2. Of course the submission of two somewhat similar propositions is likely, in some degree, to divide the vote of those who favor the municipal ownership of the street railway monopoly, but the vote on both the proposed amendments is likely to be regarded in the future as more significant than those recorded upon any of the state issues to be presented at the coming election.
