Remarkable Coincidence

An examination of the evidence which has for over fourteen years been accumulating in regard to Odontine, discloses a remarkable coincidence of opinion among those who have used it, and, grateful for the benefits it has conferred upon their teeth, have voluntarily testified in its behalf.

We doubt if there is a lady in the city with a proper regard for her teeth who is unfamiliar with this standard article for the toilet, which not only restores and perpetuates whiteness and soundness of the teeth, but causes the gums to assume a healthy hardness, and breath to become pure. See that each bottle hears the name Cairneross &

Lawrence. Beware of imitations.
