

HAPPINESS FOR THE DEAF

Mr. George P. Way, the well-known inventor of artificial ear-drums for twenty-five years, having contracted deafness, Mr. Way himself was deaf for the deaf, will be in London during a tour after an attack of typhoid fever when a boy in Devonshire, England, the place of his birth. His deafness grew worse, and when he came to young manhood, he had to carry an ear trumpet as large as a small teapot in order to hear public speaking. But now, by the use of his artificial ear-drums, which he wears in his ears, and which cannot be seen, he can hear a whisper, and one talking to him would never know that he had been deaf. Mr. Way resides in Detroit, Mich., having gone there from Lambton County, Ontario, twenty years ago. He is well known in Detroit, having been employed at the Young Men's Christian Association for thirteen years as engineer and electrician. It was while in the employ of the Y. M. C. A. that he invented his ear-drums, which brought back his hearing. Mr. Way wants all deaf people to call on him while he is in London, and see the new improved ear-drum, patented July 15, 1908. You are under no obligations when you go to see him, and will be frank with you and tell you whether artificial ear-drums will help you or not. Mr. Way has had a large experience in dealing with the deaf, and invites you to write to him if you cannot see him in London, his home office address being 18 Adelaide Street, Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Way will be in London at the Tecumseh House from Monday, Sept. 14 to Sept. 15. All who are deaf should be sure to call on him. Office hours: 9 to 12 a.m., and 2 to 5 p.m.; evenings by appointment. 1129-57-uty

WANTED: MAN WHO PAYS WAY; HE ALONE CAN BE FREE
BY DR. MADISON C. PETERS.

Honesty is often another name for freedom from debt. The honest man always will try to discharge his just obligations, otherwise he cannot appropriate to himself the title. Many have such a dread of debt that they would rather forfeit life itself than contract it. Carlyle hated debt to such a degree that he could not be induced to borrow to relieve real distress. All through his life the sage of Chelsea labored hard for merely enough to keep himself and his wife and died a poor man. John Bunyan was another that never could be induced to borrow a shilling. Many a time he travelled the roads hungry and with insufficient clothing, yet would not allow his friends to relieve his necessities. When Sir Walter Scott got into debt he never had an hour's contentment of mind, so he sat down to work as perhaps never man toiled before, and turned out the Waverley novels, which happily were the means of relieving him from the incubus that pressed him down. These men realized, as all self-respecting men realize, that debt takes away independence of character, saps the manhood, and leads the way to disgrace and ruin in the end.

MAN WHO "OWES" IS "OWNED."
A man in debt is in a state of servitude, he is not his own master, he belongs to another. "Owe" is the original from the Anglo-Saxon of the verb "own," which means to possess, so that which is owed is something which belongs to another; therefore, he who puts himself in debt is virtually a slave to his creditor. He has no freedom of mind, and is bound down by the thought of his responsibility. There is always a fear upon him which he cannot shake off and this fear pre-disposes him to cowardly falsehood, deceit and even worse vices. How different feels the man who is free and independent. He is afraid of nobody, he walks with a buoyant step and erect head, courageous in the faith of righteousness. He bends to no superior, for he considers himself the equal of any. He can enjoy life and get the best that is in it out of it. John Randolph once sprang from his seat in the House of Representatives and exclaimed: "Mr. Speaker, I have found it!" and then in the stillness which followed this strange outburst he added, "I have found the philosopher's stone—it is to pay as you go!"

PHILOSOPHER'S STONE FOR THE YOUNG.
That is the best advice any man can get—pay as you go. Especially is it good for the young, those just crossing the threshold of manhood to play their parts in the great world.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Dear Sirs—I had a bleeding tumor on my face for a long time and tried a number of remedies without any good results. I was advised to try MINARD'S LINIMENT, and after using several bottles it made a complete cure, and it healed all up and disappeared altogether.

Awful Curse of Drink Cured!

Samarita Made Him Hate Liquor—Costs Nothing to try.
Wives and mothers, sisters and daughters—don't see your loved ones go down in disgrace to the drunkard's grave. Many men have not the will-power and physical strength to overcome the craving for alcohol. They must have help. "Samarita" Tasteless Prescription is the savior of the drunkard. It destroys the taste for liquor and at the same time builds up and strengthens the system so that the reformed drunkard requires no stimulants. "Samarita" has brought peace and happiness to thousands of wives and mothers. Read what this Montreal Lady says.

"I had for years patiently borne the disgrace, suffering, misery and privations due to my husband's drinking habits. Hearing of your marvellous remedy for the sufferings of drunkenness, which I could give my husband secretly, I procured a package and mixed it in his food and coffee, and, as the remedy was odorless and tasteless, he did not know what it was that so quickly relieved his craving for liquor. He soon began to pick up his appetite for solid food returned, he stuck to his work regularly and we now have a happy home. I hereby advise all women afflicted as I was to give your remedy a trial."

Suffered Tortures for Seventy Years

WIFE OF A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN TELLS HOW SHE WAS CURED.

Mrs. J. R. Flock is the widow of one of the best-known physicians in London, Ont. She was treated by her husband and many other medical men, yet never received any lasting benefit. Just by accident, she tried a well-known remedy, and now, after 70 years of suffering, she is well. Read her letter to Fruit-a-tives, Limited.

"Dear Sirs,—Since my early childhood (and I am now in my 73rd year) I have suffered indescribable torment from stomach trouble and indigestion, complicated with liver disorders. Being the wife of a prominent physician, the late Dr. J. R. Flock, I, naturally enough, had a prejudice against proprietary remedies. I was, however, unable to benefit to any great extent through the ordinary remedies of physicians, being constantly in delicate health from stomach disorder and vomiting. Accidentally I came into possession of a sample of "Fruit-a-tives"—tried them, and found myself wonderfully benefited. I take them now as my only medicine, and they are keeping me in the most satisfactory health. After finding out the wonderful medicinal qualities of "Fruit-a-tives" I have recommended them to many of my friends and acquaintances, who have also had the best results from their use—and one lady friend that I have recently recommended them to, has used them for sciatitis, from which she suffered constantly and was unable to procure any remedy that would relieve her. She is now taking "Fruit-a-tives" and is cured. I am glad to be able to recommend "Fruit-a-tives" and will be glad if you will use my name in any way that will be a means of bringing your remedy before the public."

SLEEP Is More Important Than FOOD

No one can live without sleep for a whole week, while Dr. Tanner and others have fasted forty days. Restful sleep is necessary to do good work—you can't rest in a hammock, or on a spring bed that sags to the centre—your body should be supported throughout, and yet be on a level surface, which yields to every move.

A "Star" Felt Mattress and a "Banner" Spring

fill this bill exactly—will give you comfort and rest—will prevent that tired feeling next morning. The two cost less than a cheap hair mattress, and are good for an ordinary lifetime—no cleaning—no repairs.

We are the largest Bedding Manufacturers in Canada, and protect you by this trade mark, which is plainly shown on each, and is a "Money Back" Guarantee. If you don't sleep well, or have that tired feeling in the morning, it will pay you to change your present Spring and Mattress for a "Star" and "Banner."
