American Head of Belgian Commission Has a Narrow Escape.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Sept. 25.—The Dutch mail steamer Prinz Hendrik, which was seized by German naval forces while bound from Flushing for London and taken into Zeebrugge, was in deadly danger when, as the steamer was being scorted toward that port for the second time, an allied aeroplane dropped a comb, intended for a convoying German estroyer, within twenty feet of the ves sel, wounding one Dutch passenger and two sailors. This is the story told by bassengers of the Prins Hendrik who

During the course of his address he referred to "Prussian militarism," a term to which Miss Betty Knight took pronounced exception. The Prussian spirit, she declared, was not confined to Germany, but was also manifysted in Canada. It was to be found in the case of a certain colonel who had a boy thrashed in his unit. Miss Knight further made the radical statement she didn't believe the Poles were any more oppressed by the Prussians than the Irish by the English.

Cash wheat at this market developed a peculiar situation mainly through the spectacle of the premium on No. 1 northern being 6½c, while on No. 2 it was only 2½c. The demand of the trade was entirely for the higher grade. It is doubtful if a similar condition has existed in Winnipeg in years, and indicates plainly the fear of shortage of high-grade wheat for milling.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Wheat rose to the highest price today. Scarcity offerings had much to do with the latest upturn in values, and so did reports of a large export demand. It was pointed out that world shipments showed a material falling off as compared with arguments a week ago. Bears seemed unable to make any headway, with arguments about the possibility of a sudden termination of the European war, or as to a chance of the release of Russian supplies. Opening prices, which ranged from 7½ to 25½ higher, with December at 156½ to 157½ and May at 156% to 157, were followed by additional gains in some cases.

She Believes in You

There is nothing in all the world more wonderful than the faith of a woman in the man

Your wife, or the girl who has consented to be your wife believes that you are true and brave and just. She believes that you will always love and cherish her. The last thing she thinks of is whether you will provide her with a good home and protect her from want. Yet that is the first thing you should think of if you are to justify her faith. Are you true to her unless you protect her from her blind faith in you by carefully providing for her needs in case you should be taken from her? Are you brave if you accept her blind faith while knowing that if you followed die she would be penniless?

Are you just to your life partner if you do not see to it that her faith in you will be rewarded by having the fear of Poverty removed from Get a life insurance policy that is "Good as Gold" if you want to justify her faith in you.
