Associated Press Despatch. Chamonix, France, Jan. 29. — The hockey teams of Great Britain and Canada triumphed over France and Sweden in the Olympic games today. The Canadians added to their brilliant reputation by fairly smothering the Swedes, considered the strongest European team, winning by a score of 22 to 0. The English team defeat. ed the Frenchmen, 15 to 2.

The women's fancy skating contest went to Mme. H. Szabo-Plank of Austria, with Miss Beatrix Loughran of New York second. Mrs. Theresa Weld Blanchard of Boston took fourth honors, and Miss C. Eustice Smith of Canada sixth.

Canada's victory over Sweden has made the Canadians big favorites for the championship. Swedes never had a chance in the face of skill and speed, the like of which is said never to have been seen before in the Old

This gives a total of 172 points, fifth and sixth place points points, fifth and sixth place points from meeting Cy Pook here Thursday next points, fifth and sixth place points having been cancelled in the military skiing competition.

The Canadians opened with a be wildering attack against the Swedish goal and before the first period ended had found the net five times and driven the entire Swedish team to the mouth of its goal.

The second period netted the Canucks seven goals and the final period saw another ten in the Swedish net.
Not once during the whole game was the Canadian goal threatened, and the defence players from the Dominion made only forevers the case of the Canadian goal threatened.

Another of the forevers the foreve minion made only frequent sallies toward the Swedish goal.

The Swedes were all fast skaters and spectators agreed that despite the one-sided score they furnished the stiffest opposition shown by any European team since the hockey games began.

Several substitutes were placed in the Canadian line-up during the game today, and players from Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg figured

The victory today was the second decisive one to be gained by the Canadians, who won from Czecho-Slovakia yesterday, 30 to 0. The Canadian players swept the Swedes off their feet at the outset. Harry Watson scored the first, and the period ended, four other tallies had been chalked up to the credit of the Canadians. Smith Tallies Second.

Sweden throughout the first period played only two men on the forward played only two men on the forward line, bringing one wing player back on the defence. This kept four men continually in front of their goal with the evident intent of keeping the score down the lowest possible.

In the second, the desperate effor of the Swedes to keep the score low failed again, when the Canadians got going in real top form.

In this period, Olson, the Swedish gral-keeper, stopped one of Munro's commonball shots with his face. He was unconscious for three minutes, but after being revived, pluckily resumed play.

Kept In Mid-Ice.

Seven goals were tallied by the players from the Dominion in this period. They scored in the following order: Munro, Ramsay, McCaffery, Cyril (Sig) Slater (Montreal), Watson, Ramsay and McMunn.

The puck seldom got past mid-ice in Canadian territory.

In the third the entire Swedish team backed up against the mouth of their own goal and made desperate efforts to stave off the Canadians. Through this jam the Canadians managed to squeeze the puck for ten more tallies. The Canadians, who scored in this period were, respectively: Watson, Watson, Ramsay, Smith, Smith, Smith, Watson, Munro, Munro, Ramsay.

The line-up of the Canadians as they took the ice follows:

Ernie J. Collett, goal; Beattie

Efforts Fruitless.

In the second period the Saints started in to rush their opponents, and succeeded in getting as far as the enemies' goal, but, due to the good work of Bugg, the Methodist goalle, their efforts were fruitless till Chick Faulkner slipped past the watchful eye of McBurney and Craig and registered the only counter of the game.

The second match proved to be real thriller, and gave the rival supporters plenty of chances to cheer their favorites. Goddard started the fireworks when he scored on a clean shot from in front of the goal, but Stevens succeeded in slipping in a counter to tie it up.
