ROY MITCHELL GETS DECISION OVER "BING" CONLEY IN HALIFAX.

Roy Mitchell, the Granville boxer, won out in another good contest against "Bing" Conley, light-heavyweight of Lewiston, Maine, and champion of North Eastern New England. About six hundred including seven local sports witnessed the "mill" at the Strand Theatre in Halifax on Wednesday night last.

Mitchell was much the stronger in the hitting and in the last rounds showed up to excellent advantage. His opponent was more experienced in ring generalship through longer practice and was cool and shifty. The referee's announcement giving the decision to Mitchell in the tenth was a very popular one, but it appears that his showing in the last rounds when he manifested decided superiority brought him out the winner.
