

--but was equally unsuccessful. The polling then commenced, and the Court House being filled with Mr Hatton's friends, the result at the adjournment on Monday evening was—Hatton 251, Patterson 81. It is with painful feelings we notice the fact that in the afternoon of that day, some drunken blackguards went about in the crowd outside, striking at, or abusing every one they met; this ended in an affray which caused a good deal of bloodshed and broken heads. Unlike the County Election, the present one has been attended by scenes of drunkenness, which we have reason to fear, has been encouraged by some of the Candidates themselves. We trust therefore, that for their own credit and the honor of Pictou, an investigation will be made into the fact. It is exceedingly annoying that peaceable men cannot come forth to exercise the privileges of freemen without being repelled by brute force—occasioned by inebriation. The practice also of parading the streets on such occasions with flags containing inscriptions, music, &c. is exceedingly improper, and ought to be put down. It is always viewed as an insult to some other party, and is the fruitful source of hostile collisions.

At ten o'clock yesterday, the Poll was again opened, and soon after, Mr Patterson having been advised by his friends to relinquish the contest, the Poll was closed and Mr Hatton duly returned. The state of the Poll at the close was, Hatton 311, Patterson 94. Majority 217.

THE Boat and three men we noticed last week as having been missing, we are glad to hear has since arrived in safety at Arisaig.

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—Mr. J. Stiles, at its last meeting, read an interesting Essay on "Mechanics"—the general principles of which, he illustrated by experiments. Dr. Martin lectures this evening on "Pneumatics."
