

DAVID C. COOK'S SUNDAY SCHOOL REQUISITES FOR 1882.

ENORMOUS SAVING TO SCHOOLS.

There is usually quite as much money in selling 100,000 copies of a publication at 5c. as 5,000 at 25c., or 500 at $1, and we are quite contented to make prices on this basis. We are not the least afraid of the cry of "cheap, cheap." There hasn't been half enough said in that direction, for we not only sell cheap, but even stand ready to GIVE AWAY OUR GOODS where a trial does not demonstrate to the buyer that they are BETTER than other, no matter how dear. We employ the ablest writers, and pay for all MSS., using more original matter than any two other publishers in this line, having employed and paid nearly two hundred writers during the past year, besides seven editors. Nothing partisan or sectarian admitted. Sales last year aggregated twenty-six million copies; this year, thirty-six millions. We are now by one-third the largest mailers in the Northwest.

TRIAL OFFER.

The whole matter left in the hands of the school.

If our publications are not better than others (as well as cheaper) we ask nothing for them. READ THESE OFFERS TO YOUR SCHOOLS.—We do not see how any one can refuse to give us just one trial.

TRIAL OFFER ON OUR GRADED HELPS.

We claim our graded helps are in every way superior to the ordinary non-graded ones, and we are willing to back up this statement by an offer which gives every school the help of our best if the trial proves a failure. If ours don't suit, you will then have three months' help free; and if they do suit, you get one quarter at half price, and on balance of year you save considerable, as the prices of our publications are much less than others.

FORM OF TRIAL ORDER.

To DAVID C. COOK, Chicago, Ill., 60612.

DEAR SIR—We have never used any of your Lesson Helps in our school. We wish to try them with a view of taking them regularly if they really prove better for our work than those we have been using. If you will send, as per order below, we will try them carefully, always using the lesson helps with the lessons on which they are written, using responsive readings, opening and closing hymns at least occasionally. Endeavouring also to induce home study in the various classes, as suggested in the helps. In fact, to use every means in our power to make the helps most useful in securing thorough study and in impressing the lessons. Then, at the end of three months, I can conscientiously write you that we have tried the helps faithfully, but that they have not proved really better helps, securing more home study, more interest in the lessons, pleased the school better than those we have been using, you are to return me the half price paid for them. But if not I will continue using them.

On these conditions please send me for first quarter of 1882.

TRIAL OFFER ON OUR GRADED PAPERS.

If your school has never used any of our papers, you may order of us full supply for school on trial, with the express understanding that if they do not prove better than those you have been using, you are not to pay us one cent; you to have three months' trial, and not to pay us a thing till the end of that time. As a trial costs nothing at the start, and nothing at all if it does not prove a success, will it not be worth your while, when it succeeds you save 25 to 40 per cent, a year in your expenses?

FORM OF TRIAL ORDER.

To DAVID C. COOK, Chicago, Ill., 60612.

DEAR SIR—We have never used any of your Sunday-school papers in our school. We should like to try them with a view of getting them regularly if they prove really better. If you will send me, as per order below, we will try them and state to the school when the first numbers are given out, that they have been ordered on trial; that we want them read carefully; and that if we like them better than those we have had, we can have them regularly. At the close of three months we will let the opinion of the school, and if we can then conscientiously write you that the school does not like them better than other Sunday-school papers we have been using, it is specially agreed that you are to send me the papers free until then. I do not write you as above at the close of the three months, then I will pay you as per price below. On these conditions please send me for first quarter of 1882, January, February and March.

OUR GRADED SUNDAY SCHOOL HELPS,

They suit the age of each.

They furnish a companion teachers' help in each grade.

They save expense of song books, giving thirty-eight pieces in each number—one hundred and fifty-two in a year.

They give you lesson songs worked right out of the lessons.

They are arranged to sing at sight by means of old and new tune combination.

They introduce a system of home study and lesson marking, which always improves the lesson standard.

They are vastly superior in every way, and yet they cost far less than others.

View of the new Quarterlies, with lesson and music opposite each other.

This not only saves time, but serves to connect the lesson with the hymns in the mind of the scholars and teachers, besides enabling the superintendent or chorister much easier and better to call attention to their connection. We arrange our opening and closing hymns and responsive readings on opposite pages in the front of the book, where they can be instantly found.

End view. Side view.

Cuts showing plan of tying together.

Whole year are preserved, forming a whole song book of 152 pieces, and a commentary on the whole year's lessons.

Hymns Opposite the Lesson

No turning over pages to find the hymn you want, for opposite each lesson is placed its hymn. This not only saves time, but serves to connect the lesson with the hymns in the mind of the scholars and teachers, besides enabling the superintendent or chorister much easier and better to call attention to their connection. We arrange our opening and closing hymns and responsive readings on opposite pages in the front of the book, where they can be instantly found.

Binding the Quarterlies.

We publish the only quarterlies that are sent out perforated at the back, so as to be easily fastened together, and thus preserved from quarter to quarter, by using a bit of string, ribbon, or common paper fasteners. Coming ready punched in this way, it is little trouble for the school to attach a second quarter's book to the first of each scholar's and teacher's, or to induce each to do their own attaching. Thus the books for the whole year are preserved, forming a whole song book of 152 pieces, and a commentary on the whole year's lessons.

GRADED SUNDAY SCHOOL PAPERS.

Advantages of Graded Papers.—

Instead of the old plan of furnishing all of the main school with the same paper, four kinds of paper are taken for each week, beside the paper for the infant class, as follows: The Weekly Church and Home, for adults; The Weekly Magnet, for our 11c. monthlies for older scholars; our four 8½c. monthlies for the intermediate scholars; our four 5c. monthlies, or the 25c. weekly for the juvenile scholars; our Dew Drops, or the 6c. Weekly for the infant class.

By this plan all families having members of the school in all the grades get the reading of FIVE PAPERS A WEEK in place of one or two, and yet it costs the school no more, besides each one gets a paper suited to his age.

Below is the actual number of words you get per week, using our graded papers:

5th grade D. C. Cook's weekly Church and Home	26,000 words
4th do do Weekly Magnet	16,000 do
3rd do do 8½c. series	8,000 do
2nd do do do	5,000 do
1st do do Weekly Dew Drops	600 do

Using all five gives each family a grand total of 56,000 do

6c Weekly.—THE LITTLE LEARNER'S PAPER, a weekly paper for the infant-class; costs in clubs but six cents each year, or 2c. a quarter. Other infant-class papers cost from 25c. to 40c. a year. Contains the lesson, with little lesson pictures, also one illustrated story in each number.

22c. Weekly Primary Paper.—The Dew Drops. A grand thing. No infant class paper published near the size and quality. Contains from six to ten pictures in a number. Printed in large type, on fine surface toned paper. Illustrated lessons for little ones; illustrated stories; little one's knowledge box; advice to little folks; mother's column, etc., etc. Cost in clubs, 22c. per year. 6c. per quarter.

5c. Monthlies.—Our Sabbath Home. The Truth Seekers, The Giant Killer. Four monthlies in clubs at 5c. a year, or 1½c. per quarter, when bought in lots of five or more. Each paper contains as much matter as the average Sunday-school paper, and more than many.

10c. Weekly.—THE SABBATH SCHOOL WEEKLY, for the main school. In clubs at 10c. a year, or 3c. per quarter. Contains as much matter as some papers costing 60c. a year weekly. Five times cheaper than any other main school weekly published.

8½c. Monthlies.—The S. S. Gem, Careful Builder, His Jewels, The Young Folks' Friend. Four monthlies in clubs at 8½c. per year, or 2½c. per quarter. These are larger size than the average church Sunday-school paper, are printed on the finest quality of material, illustrated in finest style of art, and filled with choice reading, containing nearly double the matter of many S. S. papers, yet costing less than any published by others.

30c. Weekly.—THE WEEKLY MAGNET, an illustrated serial weekly paper for the main school. In clubs at 30c. each per year, or 8c. per quarter. An immense thing, five times the matter of most Sunday-school papers (please count words), also a choice serial running through the quarter. Nothing like it to keep up the attendance, invaluable as a means of doing good in the home, besides, in many cases, preventing the reading of bad books and papers. Other papers, with less than one-fifth the matter, cost 50c. to 60c. a year.

11c. Monthlies.—The Royal Road, The Conqueror, Herald, Gracious Words, Our Own S. S. paper. Four monthlies Over 16,000 words in a number, or twice to three times the matter of most S. S. papers (more than any other) printed on finest paper, illustrated with finest engravings, and contains matter from the ablest pens, and yet are sold at lower rates than the papers of other publishers.

A Bible-Class Paper.—A weekly for the teachers and officers. THE CHURCH AND HOME illustrated, the only paper of the kind extant. Contains nearly 26,000 words in a number. Nothing like it to hold adults and older scholars in attendance. Is gotten up on the plan of a $2.50 religious weekly. Price weekly—in lots of five or more, each, 50c. per year, 12c. per quarter.

Folded Papers FOR 1882.—All of our main school papers will be sent out "ready folded," not in the large sheet form. Thus they come in nice shape to be given out, saving time of folding or noise and confusion created by giving them out unfolded.

Chautauque Democrat.—When we mention his name in connection with any Sunday-school literature, it is a sufficient guarantee of its excellence.

Chicago Signal.—The one prominent principle of his business has always been the utmost cheapness consistent with excellence; consequently, his Sunday-school helps and papers can be had at a large discount upon the prices of older houses.
