

School have already increased fourfold in attendance, and have been conducted to the complete satisfaction of the Mission Committee. Mr. Melville has secured the entire confidence of rich and poor in Rothesay, and has the respect and esteem of churchmen and dissenters." Mr. Melville has a fair field before him in Fredericton. We trust that he may prove an energetic assistant to Dr. Brooke, a faithful servant to the Head of the Church, and a blessing and comfort to the people among whom, in the providence of God, he is to labour.

It is, however, with other things, so badly seated and so badly heated, that many think a new church a necessity.

The church in connection with the Church of Scotland in St. John, through the liberality of its members and the energy of its ministers, is fast gaining ground.

Presentation.—Several members of St. Paul's Church met in the manse at Fredericton, in the forenoon, to perform a very pleasing duty. There were present besides the reverend pastor (Dr. Brooke), and Mrs. Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Mount of St. John, Dr. Jack, Dr. Bennett, T. R. Robertson, J. A. Morrison, John McBeath, Esqrs., and Mr. J.
