The Dominion Cotton Mills Company formed to control the Canadian gray cotton mills, is now complete and the first regular meeting of shareholders has been held at which A. F. Gault was elected president. The company has obtained a charter and its capital is $5,000,000. The mills which will come under the control of the Dominion company on January 1st next number nine, the total value of which is estimated at $4,800,000 — $1,000,000 more than the amount paid for them by the Dominion Cotton Mills Company. The headquarters of this immense concern are in Montreal, where all the directors are located and where the capital stock is principally held.
