

SHAFTESBURY HALL

WEEKLY BULLETIN.

PUBLISHED BY THE

TORONTO YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

VOL. III.

TORONTO, NOVEMBER 18, 1882.

No. 31.

Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

—Prov. iv. 14-18.

OUR WORKERS.

THE plan adopted two months ago appears to meet with the hearty approval of our workers, as evidenced in the large turn out on Thursday evening last, when, notwithstanding the heavy rain, thirty-five of our most earnest and active workers assembled. After tea, which was served at 6.30, an hour was spent in prayer and Bible reading. The several Committees then met in different rooms, and talked over the work performed, and laid plans for renewed efforts. Some new workers were added to the staff in connection with boarding house visitation. Taking the meeting altogether it was cheering, and we feel much encouraged and hopeful of a good work being done in the Lord's name, on behalf of young men.

DEAF MUTES' CLASS.

FRIENDS forming this class were provided with a social tea, on Friday evening last, by Mr. Nasmith, the Chairman of the Committee. A goodly number of deaf mutes with their wives and friends were present, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

CLASSES.

OUR Classes will open during the first week in December.

They will be as follows:

Book-keeping, by Mr. P. McIntyre, every Thursday at 8 p.m.

Phonography, by Mr. A. McIntyre, and Architectural and Mechanical Drawing, by Mr. H. B. Gordon, every Friday at 8 p.m.

Members desiring to enter any of these Classes will please hand in their names to the Assistant-Secretary, at the Rooms, prior to the first of December.

OUR BULLETIN.

INCREASED demand has been made for the Bulletin, and to meet this we have, (in dependence upon God for the means needed to pay for the same,) published an additional number during the past
