

"THE WIDOW."

Words by J. C. PRINCE.

DUET FOR TWO TENORS.

Musio by T. JONES, Hamilton.

Allegro.

Author of Songs, To-Day and To-Morrow, Pen and Press, Love at Home, &c.

Piano introduction in 8/8 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

First Tenor.

First Tenor vocal line with lyrics: Youth-ful Wid-ow, Gen-tle Wid-ow, Pen-sive Wid-ow, With thy fair and Mus-ic ling-ers Truth and feel-ing, With thy wood of Sweet when so-cial Vir-tuo flings her sor-row float-ing, con-verse flow-eth, light a-round thee,

Second Tenor.

Second Tenor vocal line with lyrics: Love-ly Wid-ow, Pleas-ing Wid-ow, Faith-ful Wid-ow, and thought-ful face, on thy tongue, warms thy heart,

Vocal duet section with lyrics: 'Round thy face of Sweet-er in the May that glo-ry qui-et grace;... words of song;... no'er de-part;... Where-so-e'er thy When to thee None have dared, thy foot-steeps lead thee, turn and list-en, wan-ton mal-ice, Mag-ic reigns up-Oth-or things aro-Thine un-an-lie Vocal duet section with lyrics: on the spot;... all for-got;... fame to blot;... I have watch'd thy mein and mo-tion, I have heard thee, love-ly mourn-or, I have know'n thy worth and beau-ty, Could I gaze, and love thee not!... Could I hear, and love thee not!... Could I know, and love thee not!... Rit.

Presto.

Piano conclusion in 8/8 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.