ELDER PUBLISHING COMPANY,
CHICAGO, ILL.

Magazine of American History.

"This periodical is without a rival in its domain, and is becoming indispensable to all intelligent readers. It is an unfulfilling source of historical and documentary evidence of the growth and expansion of our vast country."—Christian Advocate

"It is more than a periodical: it gathers into permanent and accessible form material that would otherwise be lost, or only found with great effort. Its articles are uniformly well written, and the illustrations and print complete the attractiveness of the magazine."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

"Mrs. Lamb is making of this magazine one of the best periodicals in America."—New York Tribune.

"It is always a pleasure to welcome the Magazine of American History, with its antiquarian interest, its historical and biographical value, its fine type and paper, and its antique illustrations."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Each number always presents an admirable collection of papers, and maintains the high character of the gifted editor, who, in her history of New York City, displayed the highest qualities of an author. The magazine is as instructive as it is entertaining."—Scientific American.

"Its contents are excellent, and every family in the world should be on its subscription list."—Detroit Every Saturday.

"This publication has steadily increased in interest. It fills a niche of its own, and fills it so admirably as to ward off any attempt at competition."—Baltimore American.

"It is exceedingly valuable for the best portraits of historic characters which can be obtained. Last year the presidents from Washington to Arthur were given from the most authentic sources, and alone they were worth the subscription to the Magazine."—Newburyport Herald.

"The editor is giving great dignity to our country in recording the lives of families that are noble in the highest sense. The illustrations are very fine and interesting."—Boston Globe.

"This periodical richly deserves the high rank accorded to it by leading historical scholars in the two hemispheres."—Boston Transcript.
