

him $3,200 as a mark of appreciation. In February, 1842, he entered Queen's College at its opening. He was one of a class of seven theological students and studied here for three sessions, and during one session, '43-'44, acted as tutor in the preparatory or grammar school of Queen's College along with William Bain, the late Rev. Dr. Bain. At Kingston he formed a union Sabbath school at Portsmouth, and that school is still carried on.

A late issue of the Winnipeg Tribune has the following: "There was a large audience last night at Knox Church lecture hall. A good programme was presented, and much interest was taken in the elocutionary competition, which was keen. A close vote being taken, Mr. R. E. Knowles was successful, receiving a beautiful silver medal engraved 'Manitoba College, April 1st, 1890. Elocution,' and on the reverse side, 'Won by Mr. R. E. Knowles.'" Mr. Knowles was registered at Queen's in '86. His ability as pleader in the Concursus is not forgotten. Congratulations, Bob.

The Rev. John Chisholm, B.A., '78, well-known in ministerial and religious circles in Kamloops and the interior, will remain in Victoria, B.C., a couple of weeks yet. As illustrating the progress the Province is making it may be mentioned that in 1884 Mr. Chisholm was sent to the interior as a missionary by the Presbyterian Church in Canada, his field being from the boundary to the Arctic Circle and from the Cascades to the eastern base of the Rockies. Mr. Chisholm has succeeded in making the Kamloops Mission a self-sustaining congregation. His connection therewith as a missionary then ceased. A call will be moderated in shortly. Prior to his leaving Kamloops, Mr. Chisholm was presented with a magnificent gold watch and chain by the congregation, suitably inscribed, as well as an address, which expresses the high esteem in which he is held by the people of his own flock, as well as by Kamloopians generally. The mission stations attended by Mr. Chisholm in 1884 were seven in number. Of these three are now attached to the Presbytery of Calgary, and four to that of Columbia, namely, Nicola, Rev. Geo. Murray; Spalluncheon, Rev. Mr. Wright; Vernou and Okanagan, Rev. P. F. Langill, B.A., '81, all of which he reports to be in a prosperous state.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Lost—On Sunday night, on Alfred street, between Johnson and Earl, a Peckuliar looking student. A liberal reward will be given for information leading to his discovery, as exams are approaching.

Mr. James Johnson, editor of the Ottawa Citizen, offers $20 as a prize for the best essay by one of Queen's University students on a subject to be named by the donor, the judges to be the Rev. Principal Grant, Dr. Watson and the Rev. Dr. Smith.

We regret to have to announce that the man who wrote Confidential Chats, No. 1, which appeared in a recent issue of the JOURNAL, has eloped, and we are compelled to postpone No. 2 till a more convenient season. If any of our readers should come across him they would confer a great favor by letting us know.

Mr. Sniffle—"Hope not; got a mother-in-law there."

How little of Time we have, but oh, how much of Eternity.

That Adam and Eve were born gamblers

Is as easy to prove as to say;

They were caught at a game in the garden,

And their pair-o-dice taken away.
