

The State party has designated a national agency for the purpose of receiving and processing requests for technical assistance in the field of telecommunications. The agency is currently in the process of setting up a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

In addition, the State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

In cooperation with the Technical Secretariat, the State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

The State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

The State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

The State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

The State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

The State party has established a national telecommunications center to coordinate the activities of the various telecommunications organizations in the country.

3

