

3. No Member which exports sugar shall sell sugar on the free market to non-Members on terms commercially more favourable than those which it would be prepared to offer at the same time to Members which import sugar from the free market, taking into account normal trade practices and traditional trade arrangements.

4. Nothing in this article shall prevent any Member which exports sugar from giving more favourable commercial terms to developing importing Members.