

The report is structured to address these objectives in sequential order, beginning with client needs and segmentation and ending with recommended strategies.