

4. On the basis of reciprocity and subject to the laws and regulations of the other Contracting Party, the designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party shall be permitted to provide ground handling services for other airlines operating at the same airport in the territory of the other Contracting Party.