

The Council shall determine the terms of any financial year of the Corporation and the date of the annual meeting of the members of the Corporation. The Council shall also determine the date of the annual meeting of the members of the Corporation.

The Council shall have the power to make and alter the bylaws of the Corporation, subject to the power of the members of the Corporation to alter or repeal the same. The Council shall also have the power to suspend or revoke any bylaw so made or altered by it.

The Council shall have the power to elect and remove the officers and directors of the Corporation, and to determine the terms of their office.

The Council shall have the power to determine the compensation of the officers and directors of the Corporation, and to determine the compensation of any other persons who may be employed by the Corporation.

The Council shall have the power to determine the policy and general management of the Corporation, and to determine the manner in which the business of the Corporation shall be conducted.

The Council shall have the power to determine the manner in which the assets of the Corporation shall be managed and disposed of, and to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be wound up.

The Council shall have the power to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be represented in any legal proceedings, and to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be defended in any such proceedings.

The Council shall have the power to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be represented in any legal proceedings, and to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be defended in any such proceedings.

The Council shall have the power to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be represented in any legal proceedings, and to determine the manner in which the Corporation shall be defended in any such proceedings.