

And debate arising thereon;

Mr. Schumacher, seconded by Mr. Ritchie, proposed to move in amendment thereto,—That this bill be not now read a third time but that it be referred back to the Committee of the Whole with instructions that they have power to make provision for the dissolution of the Company of Young Canadians.

RULING BY MR. DEPUTY SPEAKER

MR. DEPUTY SPEAKER: I have listened carefully to what was said. The first paragraph of the explanatory note relating to the bill says: "The purpose of this amendment is to provide for the appointment by the Governor in Council of a Comptroller of The Company of Young Canadians whose approval would be required for the payment of any money by the Company and for the entering into of any contract or other arrangement providing for the payment of any money by the Company."

The honourable Member for Parry Sound-Muskoka (Mr. Aiken) drew the attention of the House to Citation 415(1) of Beauchesne's Fourth Edition which reads in part: "When a bill comes up for third reading a member may move that it be not now read a third time but that it be referred back to the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amending it in any particular."

I suggest to the honourable Member that the Chair must interpret the words "any particular" to refer to the particulars of the bill before the House.

May I also draw the attention of the House to Citation 418 of Beauchesne's Fourth Edition which says in part: "All amendments which may be moved on a second reading of a bill may be moved on the third reading with the restriction that they cannot deal with any matter which is not contained in the bill."

I suggest, respectfully, that the proposed amendment goes beyond the scope of the bill. Actually, as the honourable Member for New Westminster (Mr. Hogarth) suggested, it could nullify the original Act. For this reason, reluctantly, I cannot allow the amendment.

And the question being put on the main motion, it was agreed to, on division.

Accordingly, the said bill was read the third time and passed.

The House resumed debate on the motion of Mr. Gray, seconded by Mr. Andras,—That Bill C-139, An Act to amend an Act to amend the Income Tax Act, be now read a second time and referred to a Committee of the Whole House.

And on the motion of Mr. Lambert (Edmonton West) in amendment thereto seconded by Mr. Crouse,—That all the words after "That" be struck out and there be substituted the following:

"Bill C-139 be not now read a second time but be read six months from this date".
