

pared daily by the Clerk of the Committee to which such Bills are referred, and shall cause the same to be hung up in the Lobby.

Consent of Parties.

64. All persons whose interests or property may be affected by any Private Bill, shall, when required to do so, appear before the Standing Committee touching their consent, or may send such consent in writing, proof of which may be required by the Committee. And in every case the Committee upon any Bill for incorporating a Company, may require proof, that the persons whose names appear in the Bill, as composing the Company, are of full age, and in a position to effect the objects contemplated, and have consented to become incorporated.

Voting in Committees.

65. All questions before Committees on Private Bills are decided by a majority of voices, including the voice of the Chairman; and whenever the voices are equal, the Chairman has a second or casting vote.

Provisions not in Notice.

66. It is the duty of the Select Committee to which any Private Bill may be referred by the Senate, to call the attention of the Senate specially to any provision inserted in such Bill that does not appear to have been contemplated in the Notice for the same, as reported upon by the Committee on Standing Orders.
