

7. The provision for advanced work in the field of Agricultural Economics is recommended, through cooperation with the Department of Economics, McGill University.