

RECEPTION COMMITTEE.

This Committee shall have the special arrangements in connection with any Club demonstration, held either in the Club Rooms or elsewhere, under their control and shall confer with the other Committees and report to the Executive Committee, as to the time and place to hold such demonstration, and prepare the programme of entertainment. They shall also arrange for the enlivenment of the Club, and generally see that any and all worthy strangers entitled to the Club's hospitality are properly introduced and made comfortable, having special regard to the proper reception of all Public Men in the Conservative Ranks when visiting the Montreal District.

THE LITERARY COMMITTEE.

This Committee shall have the selection of such literature and newspapers as in their discretion are in the interests of the Club, and the recommendation to the Finance Committee of reading room furniture and supplies generally for the same.

CALLING OF MEETINGS.

A meeting of any of the Committees may be called by the President of the Club, or by any five members of those constituting such Committee, or by the same number of ordinary members, by circular or postal card addressed to each member of the Committee, allowing 24 hours clear notice after mailing.

QUORUMS OF COMMITTEES.

In each of the Committees, House, Finance, Speakers, Reception and Literary, five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and in the Executive Committee fifteen members shall constitute a quorum.
