

Survey Act—Authorities—Corresponding provisions in Manitoba—Dedication by owner—Authorities—Width of road to be kept in repair—Special provision in Manitoba—Defects in plan of construction—How applicable to roads—Authorities—The American view—Obstructions and excavations—Necessity for guard rails or barriers—Decisions in Canada and United States bearing upon—The test of necessity for—Snow and ice—When liability arises for non-removal—Authorities in Canada—In United States—Pitch holes—When liable for—Railway crossings—Liability to maintain the structure at—Liability to maintain the approach at—Effect of sec. 611 of Ontario Municipal Act—Toll roads—Statutory provisions in Ontario—Scope of these enactments—County roads—Statutory provisions as to—Authorities—When county alone liable—When local municipalities alone liable—When there is a joint liability.

---

CHAPTER VII.

SIDEWALKS AND CROSSINGS.

Obligation to repair—Definition of—Scope of the liability—Canadian and American authorities reviewed and compared—Walks built by private individuals—Authorities—Walks outside the limits of the highway—Authorities—Dangerous places adjoining the walk—Defects in plan of construction—Law as applicable to sidewalks—Defective construction—Liability for—Authorities—Obstructions—When permissible—When not—Authorities—Excavations—Liability therefor—Authorities—Neglect to keep up the standard of repair—Duty to inspect—Liability for falling objects—Signboards and awnings falling—Objects falling from roof of building—Ice and snow—Gross negligence in Ontario—Definition of—Authorities—Classification of ice and snow cases—Ice formed through defective construction—Liability for—Authorities—Extent of liability for ice formed by natural causes—Authorities—Illustrations of ice and snow involving liability—Illustrations of ice and snow not involving liability—Must the ice and snow be uneven or irregular in appearance—Question considered—Summary of the law as to liability for ice or snow—Street crossings—Extent of liability regarding—Crossing is sidewalk within provision requiring gross negligence—Authorities—Canadian and American.

---

CHAPTER VIII.

BRIDGES.

Statutory provisions in Ontario—Definition of bridge—Bridges built by private individual—How far municipality liable to repair them—County bridges—Classification of county bridges—Authorities upon