Conservative Caucus Given to Understand That Government Favors Extending Aid, and Opposition Was Not Strong—Will Keep Road Out of C.P.R.'s Clutches.

OTTAWA, March 18.—Few people tonight in Ottawa doubt that the Canadian Northern Railway is to receive the big bond guarantee which it has been seeking from the federal government.

There was the usual demand to know whether this would be the last assistance called for and as to whether the government would be indemnified by proper security.

Legacy from Laurier. There was opposition, of course, but it seemed to make no very deep appeal to sentiment.

BISHOP MAY BE MADE BOARD'S PURCHASER

Fate of Schools Building Superintendent to Be Decided at Meeting Tonight—Winchester Report Considered Privately and Experienced Department Head Recommended.

Chairman Miles Vokes and the other members of the special committee on Judge Winchester's report completed its findings at a private meeting held yesterday afternoon.

The report is composed of three typewritten pages. It first refers to various minor contracts and states that no blame is to be attached to the officials, as the judge's finding was based on evidence of two experts whose testimony was by mistake founded on a wrong set of specifications.

To Recover Moneys. The committee recommends that the contract in which the question of overcharges by contractors has arisen be referred to council for action to recover.

TWO MEN SOON DIED AFTER DRINKING LIQUOR

Ten Guests at Dance Became Violently Ill, and Two of Them Passed Away. Canadian Press Dispatch. REVELSTOCK, B. C., March 18.—Provincial Constable Rothwell has just returned to town with the bodies of two victims of a peculiar tragedy which occurred at Malakwa, near here. It appears that on Friday night liquor was purchased in Revelstoke by a Malakwa man for consumption at a dance at Malakwa on Saturday.

ABATTOIR FIRM WAS NEGLIGENT

Lack of Protection Around Elevator Shaft Partially Responsible for Death of Patara Latusha.

A verdict of negligence on the part of the Harris Abattoir for not having the elevator shaft in their building on St. Clair avenue properly protected, was returned last night by Coroner Thompson's jury.

The medical evidence showed that Latusha had sustained a fracture of the vault of the skull. Dr. Thompson stated after the inquest that if there was an emergency hospital in West Toronto, a diagnosis of the man's case could have been made before the hemorrhage had affected the base of the brain.

TUPPER RECALLS LONG CAREER IN POLITICS

Reminiscences of Father of Confederation, Published in England, Review Canada's Development for Sixty Years—Avoids Disclosure of Great Political Secrets.

LONDON, March 18.—(C.A.P. Cable)—Extensive press notices appeared here today of what undoubtedly constitutes a substantial addition to the literature on Canada's political history in "Recollections of Sixty Years Ago," by Sir Charles Tupper, published by the Messrs. Cassell.

The work opens with the union of the maritime provinces, and embraces the whole period between that event and Sir Charles' premiership in 1896. In its main feature it gives a straightforward account of the issues in which the writer took a prominent part.

Birth of Confederation. After proceeding straightway to incorporate verbatim his lecture on the political condition of British North America, delivered in St. John in 1860, fifty pages are then devoted to the negotiations regarding the union of the maritime provinces, and contain a good deal of the many conversations on the subject between Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Joseph Howe.
