Crowd and Ideal Racing
Weather.

Kingly, carrying the colors of the Mipah Stable, trained by little Mike Daly, won the Toronto Cup, the chief feature of getaway day at the Woodbine Saturday afternoon by a neck from the Ham-burg four-year-old Slumberer II, that was a length in front of the pacesetter, Commanada. There was over thirteen thousand people on the ground, the largest attendance of the meeting, when the huge sounder for the first race, the track was in the best of condition and the weather ideal for racing.

The betting was heavy on every race, when the iron men started to take in the money on the Toronto Cup. Waterbass, despite his heavy weight of 126 lbs., was the public choice, Slumberer II, that was shouldering 125 lbs., with the light-weighted Kingy, of 118 lbs., the Austin entry, Commanada and In-dolence, and Slumberer II, the New York horse, getting quite a lot of play.

Waterbass acted up at the post and delayed the start a few minutes. When Dado shot the gate Commanada, who had the outside position, raced to the front. Slumberer II and Waterbass were last going around the first, but when they reached the three-quarter Kingy moved up to fourth position. Slumberer II, who was a length in front of Kingy, who came thru on the rail. Slumberer II, who was a length in front of Kingy, who came thru on the rail. Slumberer II, who was a length in front of Kingy, who came thru on the rail.

Waterbass fourth, a neck behind Slumberer II. About ten yards from the wire Kingy forged to the front and just landed long enough to win by a neck from Slumberer II, who came again at the finish. Commanada was an excellent fourth, a neck behind Slumberer II. Waterbass, who was a length in front of Kingy, who came thru on the rail. Slumberer II, who was a length in front of Kingy, who came thru on the rail.

Kingy, who was bred by Mrs. L. A. Livingston, is a 5-year-old brown horse by Stanhope II, a good looking filly, and Regina, who was a length in front of Kingy, who came thru on the rail.
