

Present—Elevated in the air.

Commence firing on the Right—The right hand man of the front rank commences the fire, which will run down the front and up the rear, as quick as possible. When the right hand man of the rear rank has fired, the whole will glance their eyes to the right, to bring the carbine to the priming position, and when loaded they will remain steady, waiting for the word.

Ready—Present—As before directed.

The same to be repeated a third time.

After the third fire, the whole will glance their eyes to the right, to bring the carbines to the priming position together.

Half-cock Arms—Shut Pans—Advance Arms—Present Arms—Advance Arms—As in the Carbine Exercise.

Three cheers.

SECTION VI.

DIRECTIONS FOR FUNERAL PARTIES.

The party appointed for the escort, according to the rank of the deceased, is to be drawn up two deep, with open ranks, facing the place where the corpse is lodged; and when it is brought out, the officer commanding will give the following words of command:

Present Arms—Reverse Arms—The right hand strikes the butt of the carbine which is turned upwards; the guard turned towards the body; it is then placed under the left arm, seizing the cock and hammer with the left fore-fingers and thumb. The right hand is thrown behind the body, and grasps the carbine; the right heel at the same time is brought to its original position.

The officers' swords are reversed under the right arm: the point of the sword downwards, grasping the hilt with the right hand.

Rear Rank take Close Order—The party will then wheel forwards or backwards by divisions, or sections, as circumstances may require, and will stand in column, the left in front, until the procession is ready, when the ranks will be opened by word of command.

March—The party moves off in slow time, followed by the music, playing the Dead March.
