

the Lord my might. I am able. O! pray
but above all,
to do no harm,
he finds nothing
great glory by
grace, and this
that he is in him-
ness, to open to discover to him
not, and make
ances, that he
These are the teaching of the
he does in the design of his
then to keep
do not like to
foolish desire
we may have thought we are
t I could but in duties! O ld come to the
they appear,
workings of a
fine cloak of
s plainly this.
which I might
was the case,
this very good
and so far as
ing; you may
ns of divinity,
with yourself,
you displeas'd
g you humble
confidence in