few minutes we could see tongues of flames leaping up into the air. Half an hour later the clearing on the Vipond was on fire in several places, and we then realized the dangerous position we were in. Hardly had Mr. Davidson called out his men and set the pump to work, when all around where the magazine stood was on fire. Bert Rea. magazine stood was on fire. Bert Rea, Captain Mackay. Mr. Bowery and I then began to fight as best we could for the protection of the property.

Strong, vital manly marknood fascinates all who come within its infigure. As true as you are a living, breathing human being, I can restore your VITAL MANHOOD; there is not a shadow of a doubt as to what I can thus do. BUT there is a single condition, one restriction I put, a certain solemn promise I exact from you before you can exact a promise from me; namely, you must unconditionally agree now at once and forever to discontinue any wasting, debilitating excess or dissipation that you may be indulging; with this out of the way, I will do all the rest. Remember what I say; no matter what your present condition, no matter what has happened in the past, just forget it and put, yourself in my hands; everything will come out as you wish it. I use no drugs, no lotions, no medicines; I place no foolish restrictions upon you; just lead a natural life, got all the enjoyment you possibly can, but cease dissipation; all ways remember that. I can then restore your vital energy; I can take you out of the half-man class and put you in the spot light of full, healting, cofficinted, manly vigor; I can make you feeling young to a ripe old age, because I drive jing you for the whole organism in balance, namely, VITALITY. My HEALTH BELT with suspensory attachment is the greatest single self-treatment remedy or VITALITY RESTORATIVE that the world has ever known, or probably ever will know. It is worn comfortably about the waist all night, and every night for two or three months. Thus while you are sleeping it sends a great, soft, potent life-riving the sends a great, soft, potent life-riving current of VITAL, FORCE into your blood, your nerves and your organs. Magazine Caught Fire.

"Our first care was to prevent the dynamite from being exploded. All the cases were got down the shaft in safety, but just as the last was being lowered, the magazine caught fire, and with it my headgear. I made a rush for the two horses, but they were so terrified they would not budge. I coaxed and pulled and jerked, but it was useless, and then I heard Davidson shouting. You will be burned it you don't come along.' I had to leave them, but as soon as the main fire swept past. Davidson went back and got them out. They were badly singed and burned about the head, and one has since died, but the other will come out all right. The most pitiful sight in the camp was the two fox terriers, Vipond and Hollinger. They crept under them and shared their fixte.

"We decided to make a dash for the Hollinger clearing to the west, as we thought that would be comparatively safe. After wetting our clothes as much as we could, we ran for it, and except for being temporarily blinded by the acrid tumes, reached the Hollinger safely, where we found hundreds of men gathered. The most extraorionary thing of all was that the wood piles burned with a white light just like an are lamp. This against the gloom and darkness, caused by the dense smoke clouds, had an eerie effect. In the distance burning buildings could be occasionally seen, and the entire clearing in fact was encircled by flames. Every man in the camp was out fighting the fire, and not until it seemed to have spent its force and to he heading for the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss to the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss spent its force and to he heading for the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss spent its force and to he heading for the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss spent its force and to he heading for the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss spent its force and to he heading for the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss spent its force and to he heading for the mines, Mr. Miller said: The loss spent its force and to he h casionally seen, and the entire clearing in fact was encircled by flames. Every man in the camp was out fighting the fire, and not until it seemed to have spent its force and to be heading for the McIntyre camp, did the 600 men sit down to supper.

Hit the Trail.

"Everyone was made welcome and well treated by Manager Robbins. After supper we started out on the trail for South Porcupine and reached the Pearl Lake and McIntyre claims about 10-clock. To my astonishment everything here was secure, but only gallant work of Mr. Harris and his staff saved the property, as the camp was surrounded by flames. The Aura Lake postoffice and the bank were burned.

"Mr. Bowery and I walked over the corduroy road," which was on fire in several places, while in others trees had fallen right across the trail. Here and there we came across the dead body of a horse and sometimes a man, but burned so badly that recognition to the mines that across the dead body of a horse and sometimes a man, but burned so badly that recognition the fire, and never have I experienced its like except once or twice in Africa. #### TORONTO GAVE FIVE TO PORCUPINE DEATH TOLL

R. J. D'Esterre, Who Lost Life in Mine, Was Popular Collegiate Student.

At least five Toronto people are believed to have lost their lives in the Porcupine disaster, the names of the victims known so far being: T. R. Geddes, West Toronto.

N. D. Whatmough, 186 Avenue-road.

James Rennie, 211 Farley-avenue. Andrew Yulle, 317 Wilton-avenue. John D'Esterre ,17 Charles-street E. Robert John D'Esterre, who was only 20 years of age, lost his life in the timber shaft of the Foster Mine, where he had taken refuge with sixteen others, ail of whom perished by suffocation. The young man was well-known amongst the students of the Collegiate Institutes of the city, as he attended Jarvis Collegiate until a few inonths ago, and was a great favor-ite as well as a splend of football play-er. He had been building high hopes on beginning a course in medicine at Queen's University this fall. His mothr, two sisters and a brother live of East Charles-street. The father died several years ago.

At least two eclence students of To rento University lost their lives in the great tragedy. Norman Whatmough had completed his treshman year in the mining class. He was 21 years of age. Three brothers and a sister are left.

John Taylor of White Horse, Yukon who has been attending the School of Science at 'Varsity, died in New Liskeard Hospital yesterday as a result of burns sustained in the fire that swept the West Dome property.

A Porcupine Pioneer.

T. R. Geddes, who lost his life in South Porcupine, has been in the north country for a number of years. He was 49 years old, and unmarried. A brother, W. B. Geddes, resides in West

Thos. Geddes left Toronto about years ago and spent a good many years at Jack Fish Bay, and was years at Jack Fish Bay, and was known as one of the best guides thruout that country. Some seven years ago he first found gold in the Boroupine country. He was the first to find gold there and two years ago he took the Bannerman Bros. and got them the claims they are now working. For a number of years he has been living a retired life up in the north country. Harry Ashlee, who lost his life at Cochrane, was an old Toronto boy. Speaking of the railroad service out of Porcupine. Mr. Miller said: "I must compliment the government on the way they handled the people and on their senerosity in issuing free transportation to everybody to whatever point they desired to go."

T. H. Rea's of the Rea Mine returned to Toronto yesterday from Porcupine. "Pert," as he js known to his friends, and they are many, looked himself, and no one would have suspected that he had passed thru a trying time in the gold camp.

Mr. Rea is one of those quiet unassay them. His reserve is hard to break thru, but when his feelings are touched this is cast aside and Bert becomes one of the most genial of associates.

"I was at the Vipond during the blaze," he told The World, "and we fought until it was seen that nothing could be done to save the property and we took the trail, to the Hollinger and had a trying experience. "But," and here Bert's inner self was aroused, "don't give all the credit to the men. When the facts of the Porcupine catastrophe are told in full, it will, be found that the women and swered the call of self-sacrifice, equal to any man and certainly more whole heartedly than many men.
