testified that Hockin had said: "I know they've got me, but I don't want to be the only one."

The witness said that during the sessions last winter of the federal grand jury which returned the indictments Hockin offered to give information but was turned away with the remark, "Go to the district attorney and make a clean breast of it. He is the only person with authority to make promises."

have the key of the Ironworkers' of-fice so we might put in a telephone device by which we would be able at all times to record what President Frank M. Ryan and others said about the dynamiting. At first Hockin said, 'You know I've got too much brains to get mixed up with McNamara.' But when I replied, 'You haven't any brains but only a low cunning, and we've got the goods on you,' he weak-ened."

Mr. Drew related that a strike had been declared by the Ironworkers' Union in 1905 and explosions on work of members of the Erectors' Associa-

The Montreal Gazette says:
"It has practically been declared that the reorganization of the cabinet made necessary by the retirement of Mr. Monk will be postponed until after the session of parliament. There will, however, be a temporary reorganization in order to allow the government to meet the house with all the portfolios filled."

The Gazette says Hon. Robt. Rogers will take the works-portfolio temporarily. Hon. Dr. Roche to take the information of the cabinet made workers' office when detectives visit-ed it to secure photographs of letters. The witness said Hockin on one occasion had said: 'Tve got to get away from here before anyone sees me."

G. T. Washburn, Chicago, testified about installing the telephone device in the Iron-workers' office when detectives visit-ed it to secure photographs of letters. The witness said Hockin on one occasion had said: 'Tve got to get away from here before anyone sees me."

"BOBS" IS AROUSING CRITICISM.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—(C. A. P.)—Lord Roberts despite his eighty years is touring the country advocating national military service. He addresses huge gatherings, who cheer the famous veteran lustily, but his direct reference to Germany as the undoubted foe of Britain arouses considerable hostility in certain quarters outside his meetings. A memorial has been signed by over a score of members of parliament protesting against this method of advocating military service today. Sir V. Strong, ex-lord mayor of London, writes deprecating statements, espe-cially by one so distinguished as "Bobs" as to the warlke intentions of Germany against England.
