GRAIN AT WINNIPEG

Winnipeg. March 16.—At times du . s the session of the market today the market simost verged on panicky conditions. It was the first real bear market the exchange ras seen in a long time. The rapid fluctuations were very hard to follow. The decline of almost five center a bushel in the American markets was the chief reason for the weakness in Winnipeg. A considerable number of stop orders were uncovered on the Jociline. The buying, all the way down, was of a very strong nature. Bits interests necumulated oats all the way down although their buying was not in a sufficiently large volume to stem the wave of bear enthusiasm. In the cash market spreads were practically un 1,000

GRAIN AT CHICAGO

Wave of Spring Liquidation

Chicago, March 16.—Grain prices collapsed sudderly today under a burden of annual spring liquidation, which chanced to catch the market bare of support. After extreme breaks of 5c to 64c, however, rallies ensued. Corn closed unsettled, %c to 2%c net lower, with March $1.26% and May $1.23%. Oats finished 25%c to 44c down, and pork off 22c to 50c. Suggestions that German peace feelers might have had a bearish influence on corn met with emphatic general dissent. Once the downward plunge of values had started, however, everybody in the trading pit seemed to be imbued with a single idea, and that was to sell. Buyers were at no time numerous enough to hold the market in check until 5c a bushel setback tempted purchasing on the part of heavy interests that had previously withdrawn entirely as bidders. A leading industry was fonspicuous in following this course. Total disappearance of wintry weather appeared to be the chief element of bearish sentiment, with much notice also being taken of a prospect, that lower grades would soon be made acceptable on ordinary contracts.

JAP INTERVENTION FAVORED IN BRITAIN

Newspapers in General Desire Action With Certain Russian Support

London, Friday, March 15 .- Considerable space is devoted by the news-papers to comment on the address made by Foreign Minister Arthur Balfour in the house of commons on the subject of Japanese intervention in Siberia.

The Chronicle says: "Mr. Balfour indicated the possibility that Japan might give promises to respect the ter-ritorial integrity of Russia. He insisted very properly that if Japan gives such a promise we must assume she will keep it."

The Daily News remarks: "The case against intervention reses on fears of the effect it would have on Lussia herself. If any safeguards or guar antees can be adopted to allay Russia's suspicions there is an overwhelming case for adopting them."

"The commons should be very critical of proposals of Japanese intervention without the clear consent of responsible Russians," says The Liverpool Post.

The Manchester Gaardian says: "If we are to help Russia it can only be in co-operation with her government. President Wilson sees this
