TORONTO KILTIES

"Ladies From Hell" Receive Plaudits of Cheering Thousands.

GOOD-BYE TO COLORS

Standards That Waved in Germany Find Final Resting Place.

Column after column of marching figures, then kilts swinging to the mad music of the pipes, the Old Red Patch, music of the pipes, the Old Red Patch,
Toronto's most picturesque regiment, held its last parade before the eyes of 'its native city yesterday. A drizzling rain, responsible for the postponement of the parade, failed to daunt the Highland laddies or the thousands of spectators who lined the route of parade, shouting welcome to the "Ladies From Hell," as the Hun had every reason to christen them.

There was joy in the hearts of the kilties, who, with faultless steps and swaying to the rhythm of martial music, swept along the route of parade—there was joy in the hearts of the loved ones, who stood on the side of the street to witness the last march of the love of the love of the last march of the last was 15th Rattalion and there was glorious 15th, Battalion, and there was a mingled bitterness of pride and sor-row in the hearts of those whose loved ones had given their all that their com-rades might share in this march of Spectators caught their breath in something akin to awe as the men, in marched array, aroused within their breast the thrill that comes once in a lifetime. It was the deep felt, grateful lifetime. It was the deep felt, grateful outpouring of a happy city.

There was no hitch in the program. At exactly at 2.10 the parade moved off from in front of the armories on University avenue. The men assembled at the Exhibition Camp at 12 o'clock noon and were transported to the armories at 1 p.m. by automobile. The regiment formed up facing the south.

The order of the parade was as follows: Col. W. Hendrie, O.C., and staff, banner with list of battles in which the 15th took part. Highland Brigade, 1st Battalion, returned men of the 15th; 2nd Battalion, drafts of 19th, 25th, 58th and 74th Battalions and men of other units who served with of a very impressive ceremony and one that will long be remembered by the citizens of Toronto. There in the drizzling rain stood the heroes of a score of notable engagements—smart and trim they stood—and a might be designed. trim they stood—and a mighty cheer went up from thousands of throats.

With the bands playing and the men of the 15th Battalion marching and counter-marching, the honoring of the colors took place. This was followed by the "Strathspey and Reel" march by the 15th Battalion Pipe Band.

Rousing Reception is Given to the Men of the Siege

Battery.

Two trains, bearing still more of Toronto's soldier boys, arrived at the Exhibition Camp yesterday. A drizzling rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the crowds present, and a splendid reception was given to the men as the trains pulled in. The first train, with 10 officers and 484 other ranks, including men from the 1st and 10th Siege Battery, pulled in at 1 o'clock.

As the long row of carriages, lined with protruding heads, steamed in, cheers were given and the Garrison Battailon band struck up a lively tune. An official welcoming party was absent, but the men made up for the deficiency when they alighted. It was their mothers, sweethearts and wives that greeted their soldier laddies, and what matter if there was no organized reception so long as loved ones were there.

From the station the men were marched to the transportation building, where they cheerfully awaited demobilization. Girls from the Salvation Army and Y.M.C.A. dispensed refreshments to the hungry warriors, while friends and relatives crowded around. The entire demobilization did not last more than an hour, and the men were on their way to their homes, from which they had been absent for so long. The second train arrived at 5.15 and The second train arrived at 5.15 and carried seven officers and 278 men—drafts and details from various units. Similar scenes were enacted, and the dispersal carried out with the usual efficiency and despatch.

Ex-Controller Joe Thompson arrived home yesterday from the front and was met at the station by a large number of friends.

APPEAL TO BORDEN

To Approach Allies on Behalf of Unhappy Nation.

Pleading on behalf of their murdered brethren overseas, and protesting in the strongest terms that the rights of liberty, both civil and politcal had been violated, some 1500 Jews of the local community held a protest meeting in the Strand Theatre yester-day under the auspices of the Cana-dian Jewish Congress to record their strong indignation at the recent "po-groms" in Poland. Borden at the peace conference, reads as follows:

Nightmare of Horrors.

"That the premier of Canada attending the peace conference be appealed to on behalf of the suffering Jews in Poland. From unimpeachable sources it is learned that the Jews in Poland are now going thru a nightmare of horrors, scarcely paralleled in their long history of suffering. They are being massacred, plundered and outraged. A systematic campaign of persecution and boycott is being waged against them. In the name of humanity, in the name of the ideals for which the allies fought, in the name of the 800,000 Jewish soldiers who bled for the freedom of the world, we appeal to you to intercede with the powers at the conference to put an end to the inhumanities perpetrated agains the Jews in Poland."

CANADIAN SINGER HAD

Sunday afternoon George Gibson, aged ten years, of 454 Rose avenue, fell down the cellar stairs fracturing his skull. He was removed to the Hospital for Sick Children. Last night it was reported he had regained consciousness.

Lissant Beardmore, remembered as one of Canada's best tenors, who is giving a recital at Foresters' Hall tonight, has had some exciting experiences of late years. When war broke out Mr. Beardmore was singing in Germany, was promptly interned and later saw military service, thus interrupting a spectagular career as a singer.
