Three Favorites, Two Second and a Third Choice Winners at Hamilton.

There was considerable resurrection at the Hamilton track on Thursday. Monte Carlo, Gearholm and Oak Leaf were three of those that came to life, and there was enough money landed on them to conclude that something was doing. In fact, all the winners were backed, and there may be amother reason for the unanimity of opinion that invariably prevails among the gentlemen on the block. The day was again ideal for racing. The attendance keeps up and the patrons were rewarded with at least four close fimishes. Three favorites, two seconds, and a third choice were the winners.

E. S. Gardner was again the winning owner, landing the stake and closing race.

Gilbert, a maiden, to let the stable companion take the brackets. The pair were strongly backed while Glimmer and Kamsack had considerable support.

Gearholm and Apteryx cut out a sprint pace in the steeplechase that kept Bob Alone guessing and left Madoc and Uncle Reuben away in the rear. Gearholm drew away at the second last jump and pulled up, Apteryx the same ahead of Bob Alone, the other two lost. Gearholm was plugged from 4 to 1 down to 9 to 5, and all the others except Madoc were supported.

Monte Carlo, well backed, won the first romping, Operator, a long shot, second and Highland Fling third.

Caper Sauce had all the racing luck and landed the second. Nonsense landed the show.
