Traders' Bank and Miller of Molsons Bank. They will elect permanent officers and complete the organization next week.

Vice-President Hurst of the C.W.A. thinks the following rules should be imposed on all riders: Keep to the right, with the speed limited to eight miles per hour. If these two rules were observed there would be no necessity for carrying bells or lamps. A rider going at the rate of eight miles per hour can dismount without trouble and avoid accidents.

The trophy, a handsome silver cup, the gift of Mr. H. C. Hammond, past president, was won in 1893 by a crew from the Dominion Bank (C. A. Bogert, stroke), and in the following year-by a four from the Canadian Bank of Commerce (J. M. Hedley, stroke), defeating the crew of the Caledolian Insurance Company in a close race. It is expected that the contest this year will be a close and interesting one.
