Nineteen of the First Canadian Contingent Were Killed and Sixty-One Were Wounded in a Fierce Fight With Gen. Cronje's Army on Sunday Last---Two Others Missing.

THINGS LOOKING GLOOMY AGAIN IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Strange That Lord Roberts Sends Casualties, But Gives Out Nothing as to the Results of the Fighting.

Has Cronje Been Able to Beat Off His Pursuers and Get Reinforcements?—Boers Are Leaving Natal—

London, Feb. 22.-(4 a.m.)-Lord Roberts' [list of 49 killed and wounded officers, including two generals, in the engagements PTE. A. up to Sunday evening, causes anxiety, especially as in the officers' list neither the osses of the Welsh and Essex Regiments nor those of the mounted infantry are included. This is about the number that fell t Colenso, where the non-commissioned fficers and men brought the total to 800. It is considered strange that, when sending his casualties, Lord Roberts gives no inmation as to the results of the fighting. if he has sent such a report, the War Office is withholding it. Moreover, nothing is known as to what ook place Monday, Tuesday and yesterday. spapers, both editorial and critical threaded with the disturbing suggestations on that, despite hard fighting Gen. mers, has escaped and is being reinforced by rail from Ladysmith and by forces on foot and horseback from Northern Cape

All is Silence. ire silent, the telegrams from Boer sources receive some countenance. The latter aver that Gen. Cronje, while the British were erdeavoring to surround him, between Paardeberg and Koodoosrand, received renforcements under Dewett, and that to ether the Boer commanders fought the

From Natal and Fight Lord Roberts. London, Feb. 22,-Mr. Spenser Wilkinson. eviewing the military situation in The Morning Post, says: "Sir Redvers Buller can hardly be en pected to follow up the Boer army to on thru the passes, but it is rather surprising that he should have allowed the Boers ! make good their retreat from Natal without a desperate effort either to hold them fas or to convert their retreat into a rout.

"The net result will be the addition in week's time of from 18,000 to 30,000 me able at Paardeberg.

"A prolonged fight from Friday to Monday seems to argue something like a balance between Gen. Cronje's and Lord Roberts' forces. The question, therefore, is: Which side is able to get the largest immediate reinforcements? The most sub-

Ordinarily, the popularity of fur garments Meteorological Office, Toronto, Feb. 21.—epends upon cold weather—but the extradepends upon cold weather—but the extraordinary popularity just now of the furwear in Dineens' clearing sale is due altogefher to Dineens' low prices. Men's furovercoats, men's fur gauntiets and caps, and a select, though not very large, assortment of fur scarfs, fur collarettes and fur jackets for ladies are so very much below the actual market value of these choice furs, that an inspection of the styles and qualities will satisfy shrewd buyers. The proportion of buyers among the visitors at Dineens' these days is quite large. The bint conveyed in this is that with more visitors there would be more buyers at Dineens' clearing prices.
