for the use of our clients. We advertise what you have for sale, or what you want to buy, and in this way bring the buyer and seller together. It will pay you to deal through us. For instance, a stock-selling agent will often go through the country offering a certain stock at a certain price. You not being in touch with the market, can not tell if you are paying too much. Sometimes you can buy for about fifty per cent. by being in direct touch with the market. You are at no expense in consulting us. We do the hunting for a buyer or seller. You get the benefit of our advertisement appearing all over the country in more than seventy-five newspapers. Take our advice, buy as cheap as you can, and sell before the top of the market is reached; let the other fellow have a chance.

Have You Money To Invest ?

If you have from one to five hundred dollars to invest, write us to-day. If you are satisfied with our advice, let us do your business. Those who have taken our advice in the wheat market and dealt through us have made money. We advertise when to get in. DEAL WITH US AND WE WILL TELL YOU WHEN TO GET OUT and make money.

J. P. Bickell & Co. say at the close:
Wheat—Higher. After a dull slightly lower opending, market became buoyant under the steady buying by leading interests of July and September; session to closing with a net gain of 1%c. Unfavorable crop advices continue to emanate from reliable sources; this, with light stocks of contract wheat, lends a great deal of apprehension and creates great deal of apprehension and creates great deal of apprehension and creates of July on all declines.

Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following at the close of the market:
Wheat—The buying of July and September during the last half of the session was the feature of the day and caused a rapid advance, the May lagging comparatively. The crop news will continue to be the dominating factor and when backed by buying orders, as it was to-day, the crew of the day and caused a result can only be higher prices.

Corn—Market showed clearly the lack of short interest, selling off sharply early and comparatively. The crop news will continue to be the dominating factor and when backed by buying orders, as it was to-day, the result can only be higher prices.

Corn—Market showed clearly the lack of short interest, selling off sharply early and continued to the corn and rallied again on general strength in wheat and reaction in corn, last night's prices only when wheat advanced so sharply.
