STRAWBERRIES SLUMPED ON WHOLESALE MARKET

Sudden Increase of Canadian Shipments Caused Price to Decline.

TOMATOES DRAGGED

Gooseberries Beginning to Arrive, But Demand for This Fruit is Slack.

Strawberries slumped! The feature of the market yesterday was the sudden increase in the Canadian strawberry shipments, which caused the price to materially decline. In the early morning a few started off at 14c per box, but they declined so rapidly that parts of the same shipments sold at very much lower prices, the morning prices really averaging 8c to 10c per box, the afternoon being more drab and ranging from 11c down to 8c per box, closing 7c per box.

Another small shipment of fairly choice Canadian cauliflower arrived yesterday from C. A. Eaton, Ruthven, to White & Co., selling at $1.25 per 11-quart basket, containing nine and ten small heads. Some of the best Canadian hothouse cabbages that have been on the market in a long time came in yesterday, an odd basket of extra choice bringing $1.75 per 11-quart basket, the bulk, however, going at $1.50. The No. 2's also being of much better quality and bringing $1.25 per 11-quart basket. Delish Malott, Ruthven, shipped in especially fine ones to both White & Co. and Stronach & Sons, while Gilbert Britton's shipment to Stronach & Sons came a close second.

There are a few extra choice ones going at 18c, and some No. 1's which are over 10c only bringing 12 1/2c per lb. The gooseberries are a much better size than those at first received, some splendid ones coming in yesterday, but the demand for this class of fruit is very poor, partly caused by the extremely high price of the Delish Malott. Rutheven sold at 40c to 50c, and a few of the best at 60c, while the 11-quarts ranged from 15c to 25c according to quality. The first California pears for this season came in yesterday, and sold at $2.75 per case.

The Wentworth Orchard Company, who could not secure space in the market, have established an annex in the building just north of the tracks, on the Yonge street formerly used as a fruit auction room.

Stronach & Sons from both H. E. and F. E. Bleasinger of Burlington. Chas. S. Simpson had two cars of oranges, selling at $4 to $4.50 per case.

J. J. Ryan had a car of choice New Brunswick Delaware potatoes, selling at $2.10 per ton.

Mr. William E. Everitt had splendid shipments of strawberries from the following: Clarkson growers; R. C. Shook, W. C. Oughtred, J. H. Carvin, J. K. McKenzie, W. J. Fletcher.

H. Peters had a car of fancy green and wax beans, selling at $2 per hamper, a car of cabbages, at $3.50 to $3.75 per case; a car of oranges, at $4 to $4.25 per case; also a large shipment of choice hothouse tomatoes from Walter E. Calvert, Brampton, for which he was asking $1.50 per six-quart basket, containing a little more than eight pounds, but did not look as if they would sell at more than $1.25.

White & Co. had a shipment of fine-flavored berries from Neil Black of St. David's, and choice green peas from the Garden of Canada Co-operative Association, Kingsville.

CASEMENT'S COUNSEL HAS BEGUN ADDRESS

Prosecution Rested Case Against Prisoner With Unexpected Abruptness.

INDICTMENT DEFECTIVE? Defence Apparently Hopes to Score on Purely Technical Point.

LONDON, June 27, 2.45 p.m.—The prosecution in the trial of Sir Roger Casement on a charge of treason rested its case suddenly shortly after the luncheon recess, and the attorney-general announced that he had no statement to make. Mr. Sullivan, chief counsel for Roger Casement, proceeded with his address it became increasingly apparent that the defence attached the greatest importance to the attempt to show the indictment was faulty, inasmuch as it charged treason "by adhering to the King's enemies, elsewhere than in the King's realm."

For more than two hours Mr. Sullivan argued the matter from every angle, citing numerous cases, some of which were very ancient, which he declared tended to show no man could be tried for treason committed outside the King's realm.

At many points the three justices entered into dissertations on the questions raised. When the court adjourned Mr. Sullivan had not completed his argument, which will be continued tomorrow.

The second day of the trial opened with no change in the apathetic attitude with which the general public regards the case. The principal reason offered for this lack of interest is that the attention of the country is focused upon the continent, where it is possible to prove the decisive phase of the great war is at a crucial stage on both the eastern and western fronts.

The attitude of Casement himself is far from being one of gravity. He appears neither crushed nor subdued by the seriousness of his position, and looks to be proceeding in a most casual manner.

Evidence Not Exciting. The prosecution today resumed the introduction of testimony immediately after the court opened. The witnesses were the same as those called at the preliminary hearings at the Bow street police court, and a few new points were brought out during the early proceedings. Witnesses gave accounts of the movement of the prosecution's witnesses, Captain Robert Monro and Daniel J. Bailey, from the time of their landing on the morning of last week and in a few new points German submarines near "trales until the arrest of Sir Roger.

Displayed Green Flag. Sergeant Mackenzie, chief of the maps of Ireland and a flag of the revolutionists which were found in the house at No. 7 Burlington crescent, Oakwood Park, were opened to the guests. A dainty tea was served, after which the women in the enjoyment of the grounds knitted and listened to a charming musical program also provided by the hostess, who is herself a musician. Mrs. Pellat, Guyon, Joseph Murphy, president of the auxiliary, was an able assistant in entertaining the members present.

Conditions in Ireland. Mr. Sullivan cross-examined the police witnesses at length in regard to the general unrest in Ireland, and brought out the fact that the people of the south were arming themselves against the British government, and that the landing of arms would have had a very grave effect.

During the testimony of Constable Riley, who testified that he saw Sir Roger, the prosecution introduced as evidence a paper on which was written the name of Sir Roger, and have thrown away shortly after his arrest. This paper was picked up and given to Riley. The prosecution has laid great stress on the importance of this code, which it contends was intended for communication with German characters.

Opposite a series of numbers on this paper were sentences such as "Send cannon and ammunition," and "Send more explosives." The prosecution attempted to establish that some of the pencilled figures on this code were German characters.

The testimony was disposed of rapidly.

WOMEN ASK FOR BETTER MARKET ACCOMMODATION

Deputation Calls on Mayor and Council and Suggests More Market Locations.

As a culmination to a good deal of interest taken by women in Toronto in the subject of public markets, a deputation headed by Mrs. Home Cameron, waited upon the mayor and council to ask for better market equipment for the city.

The spokeswoman explained that the deputation represented many women's organizations as well as also the spenders of a good portion of the earnings of both men and women in the city. It was suggested that decentralizing trade and placing markets in various parts of the city would be beneficial to many locations and that farmers would bring in the areas to which they had brought their products.

Mrs. S. L. Frawley, in supporting Mrs. Cameron, gave an illustration that there were then a million boxes of strawberries at Clarkson, which if sent through the usual modes of distribution would have but one chance in a million of reaching the consumer in good condition. They ought to be available in five hours.

GERMANS APPREHEND ATTACK FROM BRITISH. Such Intensive Preparation as That Going on Never Before Seen.

LONDON, June 27.—Marcel Hutin, a war correspondent for The Echo de Paris, is quoted as saying to the Paris correspondent of The Weekly Despatch: "It will be a surprise for the world when we know that the English have accomplished in silence. We have never seen such intensive preparation as that going on at present, and it would not surprise me to learn that the Germans are becoming very anxious in consequence."

DISORDERS AT LEIPSIK. BERNE, Switzerland, June 27.—Reports have reached here that serious rioting occurred in Leipzig at the end of last week and that about 1800 shops, chiefly those of bakers, butchers and provision dealers, were pillaged by mobs.

It is said that Czech soldiers, brought from Austria, fired upon the crowd, and that martial law has been proclaimed in Leipzig and in the Duchy of Brunswick.

idly this morning and a large number of witnesses appeared for the prosecution. Much of the testimony was corroborative and showed events pertaining to Sir Roger after his arrest.

Sidney Wagmore, leading signalman on the British patrol boat Bluebell, told the off-record story as to how the German ship Aud was held up on suspicion by the Bluebell off the coast of the north and blew her up on nearing Queenstown. A diver was called to the stand and identified rifles and ammunition found on the wrecked ship. It is claimed the steamship carried 20,000 rifles and a supply of ammunition for the rebels.

The prosecution laid emphasis on maps found in the handbags on the beach. Col. Gordon, a map expert, testified they were foreign reproductions of British ordnance maps.

NO WAGE EQUALITY FOR GERMAN WOMEN

Female Street Sweepers Must Accept Less Than Regular Scale.

SCHÖNEBERG Common Council Overruled the Vigorous Protests Made.

BERLIN, June 27, noon, via London, June 28, 12.05 a.m.—The "equal wages for equal work" slogan, which the Socialists and labor organizations adopted to apply to woman labor, which is so largely replacing men labor under the war conditions, received a setback in the vote of the Schöneberg common council on the question of the wages of woman street sweepers. The municipality substituted male "white wages" with women, paying them 40 pfennigs an hour instead of the usual male wage of 25 marks weekly.

Socialist alderman demanded equal pay for the women, but the mayor of the town objected, taking the ground that the principle of equal pay once adopted would have to be extended to other branches of the municipality. He also said that as soon as the salaries of woman employees were raised the males would demand more money and refuse to work for the same wage as women. The mayor's argument proved effective and the council reversed its earlier decision for equal wages and approved the municipality scale.

The Socialist and labor attitude was based not only on an argument of justice, but on the feeling that if employers were permitted during the war to reduce the cost of labor by employing women the lower wages would continue after the war.

Nervous and Almost Crazy With Pains in the Head

Clergyman Certifies to This Cure of Nervous Prostration by Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

No ailment is more discouraging than Nervous Prostration. You may feel better for a day or two, only to find the next day that you have lost ground and are worse than ever. The headaches are worse, languid feelings are terrible, depressing. As you lose strength you lose hope and courage and look to the future with fear and trembling. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the greatest blessing that has ever come to the sufferer from nervous exhaustion. It is not narcotic in its influence. It does not depress the trembling, irritated nerves, but through the medium of the blood nourishes them back to health as nothing else can. Mrs. Alton B.
