WEEK'S RECRUITING SHOWS INCREASE

Armories Depot Deals With Five Hundred Recruits Weekly.

Five hundred and forty-six active ervice recruits were examined by the doctors at the Toronto Armories depot during the week just ended. This otal was made up of 381 Toronto men and 165 recruits from various central Ontario points, who received final medical approval. The number of Toronto recruits up for examination was an increase of one hundred, as total of 193 city men were accepted or active service. This was an increase of 54.

The Royal Canadian Dragoons se-cured 66 of the men accepted at the armories during the week. The 256th Railway Construction Battalion obtained 20, and the artillery units came close third with 19. The name of the Toronto Recruiting Depot has been changed to the To-ronto Mobilization Centre. The new order comes into effect today. The change in name was made necessary owing to the depot's added duties of giving final medical examination to all recruits enrolled in central and northern Ontario. Two drafts of men for special services left Toronto for eastern points at the week-end. One consisted of 35 officers and 50 men of the Army Medical Corps. They went eastward on Saturday. The other was a draft of 40 recruits enrolled for service overseas with the inland water transport section of the Imperial Royal Engineers. It left on Sunday night. The members of the transport section will see active service while serving on vessels used for military freight Miss St. Denis. The engagement will be at a scale of popular prices with matinees on day and Saturday.

"BRINGING UP FATHER."

The Grand Opera House next week The Grand Opera House next week will offer what is said to be one of the funniest musical comedies scheduled to visit Toronto this season, "Bringing up Father in Politics," the second edition of the famous George McManus cartoon series, which now appear daily in more than five hundred newspapers thruout the United States and Canada.

THE HIPPODROME.

The inimitable Douglas Fairbanks headlines the bill at the Hippodrome this week in the newest "Triangle" release, "The Americano." It is said to be a long continuous thrill from beginning to end. Golet, Harris and Morey have a bright musical melange. Hill and Acker are two dainty maids from New York who have renounced musical comedy for vaudeville, while Capt. Tabor's seals and sea lions are well trained. Collins, Elliott and Lindsay, comedy acrobats; Moore and Jen-kins, Carraris and Cleo, and "Key-stone" comiedy films complete the bill.

"KICK IN" AT STRAND

Today, tomorrow and Wednesday, the headliner at the Strand Theatre will be the Pathe Gold Rooster produc-tion, "Kick In," with William Court-enay and Mollie King in the two prin-cipal parts. It is full of dramatic accipal parts. It is full of dramatic ac-tion and is splendidly presented. It tells the story of a woman who mar-ries a crook to reform him, and succeeds in doing so. It is a photoplay that everyone should see.

REGENT

As a feature attraction, beautiful Alice Brady will star in "The Gilded Cage" all this week at the Regent. This story moves swiftly from start to finish. Alice Brady is seen to advantage in this production. The second episode of "The Secret Kingdom," starring Charles Richman, Dorothy Kelly and Arline Pretty will be shown. A new comedy featuring Victor Moore, entitled "His Wedding Morn," and compared with the preceding week. A Arthur George, the baritone, comprise the best all round bill that has yet been presented at the popular Regent Theatre.

MADISON.

Marie Doro, in her latest picture, which opens at the Madison this evening, has the role of a newsboy. The drama, "Lost and Won." is a story of the efforts of a little girl fighting for her very life in a big city. There are many unique situative. tions in the play, but the real treat in store for everybody is the charming acting of little Miss Doro. The Gaumont travel pictures are continued

T. M. A. BENEFIT

FOE CLAIMS BRITISH ADVANCE REPULSED

Berlin, Feb. 24. via Sayville.-South of Ypres and between Armentieres and Arras, several advances of the British, some launched after strong British, some launched after strong artillery bombardment, were repulsed, says today's official report from the Franco-Belgian front. "Our thrusting detachments carried out reconnoitring attacks west of Lieden, in the course of which they penetrated hostile positions deeply, taking prisoners and destrowing enemy works. "In the Somme sector the artillery fighting was spirited for a time, particularly between Sailly and Baucharvesnes."
