These are sections of the Nova Scotia insurance laws upon which to a large extent hinges the liability of insurance companies for losses in the Halifax extent hinges h

The manufacturer also is concerned with the railroad transportation problem and fears that in the spring, particularly in March and April, when the flood tide of shipments to Europe will be in force, he will be unable to get machinery to the farmers. The manufacturer wants to ship every machine he can produce this winter to a dealer or farmer just as soon as its paint is dry.

"It is obvious that the farm implement men are anxious to increase their turnover," said a food administration official today, "but we must admit that he is pointing out a difficulty that must be met successfully if the United States is to prove to our Allies that Americans are capable of unlimited endeavor and capacity once they get on the job."

(B. L. T., in Chicago Tribune.) (When the wounded in hospital come to die, says a British officer, their last request; in the great number of cases, is for the prayer, "Now I lay me down to sleep.")

When my sun of life is low,
When the dewy shadows creep,
So to me, before I go,
"Now I lay me down to sleep."

I am at the journey's end;
I have sown and I must reap;
There are no more ways to mendNow I lay me down to sleep. Nothing more to doubt or dare,

Nothing more to give or keep; Say for me the children's prayer, "Now I lay me down to sleep." Who has learned along the way-

Primrose path or stony steep— More of wisdom than to say "Now I lay me down to sleep"?

What have you more wise to tell
When the shadows round me creer
All is over, all is well. . . .
Now I lay me down to sleep.
