NOTICE TO BELGIANS RESIDENT IN CANADA

A Call to The Service of Their Country

The Consulate General of Belgium at Ottawa has just addressed the following communication to the Editor of the Times-Star:

A ministerial order dated October 15, 1916, extends to the Belgians living in Canada the provisions of the decree of July 1st last.

As a consequence all Belgians born after June 30, 1870 and before July 1, 1895, shall before December 1, 1916, duly fill registration forms and address same either to said consulate general or to the nearest Belgian consul.

Registration forms will be supplied by the nearest Belgian consul on either verbal or written application.

Married men born after 1894 and single men born after June 30, 1886, will be summoned to the nearest Belgian consulate where their obligations will be explained to them. If fit for service, they will be transported to the Belgian recruiting commission of Folkestone, England.

Married men born before 1895 and single men born before July 1, 1895, may apply for a delay or who have been refused same will be summoned to the nearest Belgian consulate, on a date to be determined by future provisions, to be medically examined, and if found fit, transported to the Belgian recruiting commission of Folkestone.

A lady went into a chemist's shop one morning and laid down a prescription, which was duly dispensed. As the chemist was wrapping up the bottle the lady said:—"How much is the medicine, please?" "It is three-and-sixpence," was the answer. The lady examined her purse. "Oh, dear," she said, in surprise, "three shillings is all I have with me."

"Very well," observed the chemist, anxious to oblige. "You can pay the remainder the next time you call."

"But," pursued the lady, laughingly, "but—suppose I should die?" "Oh, well, then," said the chemist, still anxious to oblige, "it would only be a small loss!"

SPORT NEWS OF THE DAY HOME AND ABROAD

CHECKERS

Canada vs. United States.

A match at checkers by correspondence has just commenced between a Canadian team, captained by J. W. Jacobson, of Toronto, and a United States team, captained by Henry Haidler, of Cincinnati. The match is for the championship of North America and the respective teams include the finest exponents of this type on the continent.

Additional interest is lent by the fact that in the last contest of this description the Canucks sprang a surprise on their formidable opponents and defeated them by a substantial margin. The Americans have scoured the country to obtain every available expert for their team. The conditions call for ten men a side, each player contesting four games simultaneously with each man on the opposing side, or a total of 400 games. This is probably the biggest and most important match of its kind that has ever taken place.

WOLFGEST SIGNS FOR BOUT.

Los Angeles, Nov. 4.—Ad Wolfgest, world's former lightweight champion, announced here today that he has signed with Tijuana promoters for a twenty-round bout with Freddie Welsh on New Year's Day. Wolfgest said that he would receive $10,000 for his end of the purse. "All that remains to make the match a certainty," he said, "is for Welsh to sign articles."

Trim Murnane Expects New Comers Will Have Trouble Getting Signatures of Other Members of The Team

There is little doubt that the American League will rally the sale of the Red Sox to the new owners, Messrs. Pearce and Ward, writes Tim Murnane in the Boston Globe. For years both have been ardent followers of the American League and admirers of President Johnson.

Harry Frazee is especially well known in Chicago. At one time he was anxious to purchase an interest in the Cubs when Frank Chance handled the world beaters. Later, when he had a chance to purchase the team, he refused, saying that Charley Comiskey was too strong in Chicago, and while the Cubs were forced to have a winner, Comiskey's team could come in last and make money, simply because the public were with him.

Mr. Frazee believes that the Giants are the best proposition in baseball and once, with George Cohan, offered John T. Brush $1,000,000 for his club. The offer was only half the price asked by Brush. The club could not be purchased outright today for less than $1,000,000, and is playing on leased grounds.

The Red Sox are a fine road attraction, but must be in the race to do a paying business at Fenway Park. The new owners will have one sweet time signing the players, as only Ruth and Shore have signed for next season. Starting with Manager Bill Carrigan, it will take big money to secure the signature of the men to contracts.

Carrigan is needed more than ever to handle the players before and during the season. The fans want him, and the American League will lose a valuable asset if he quits the game. The new owners fully appreciate Carrigan's worth and will no doubt go the limit to induce him to return, if only for one season, for they will have a hard time signing the players without his help.

MANY CHANGES TO BE SUGGESTED IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, Nov. 4.—The elimination of the spitball—in fact, the elimination of the use of any foreign substance as an aid to the pitcher; the question of raising the pitcher's limit, the complaints regarding short fences and bleacher walls; John McGraw's fall from grace; umpire work; the world's series changes—all these and many other questions will be thrashed out when the National League magnates get together December 12 for their annual get-together in New York.

Gov. Tener, president of the National League, is one of those who believe in the elimination of the spitball and its variations. A pitcher, Gov. Tener believes, should have no need for outside agencies, and the cleanliness of the game has something to do with his opinion. He believes, along with a great many others, that the spitball is just a wee bit indecent and repulsive.

The change in the pitcher's limit has found many champions and it is one of the things that magnates and critics alike expect will be decided. Clubs have suffered because they didn't have an adequate number of substitutes to carry on their games. The Philadelphia and Boston clubs are two examples of this. The New York Giants and the Phillies are expected to lead a fight for the rescinding of the twenty-one player rule.

The short bleacher wall in Philadelphia is certain to come in for discussion. It is obviously unfair to opposing clubs to count all balls into the left field bleachers home runs. The wall is low and many a drive which would be good for only two bases in other parks, bounds into the bleachers for a circuit clout.

As the Phillies play many more games than the other clubs they get too many whacks at the short wall, opposing clubs contend, and they will make an effort to have something done about it.

John McGraw's statements are certain to be aired when the magnates get their fanning started. Several of them are said to be in favor of rigid discipline for the Giants' leader.

Umpire batting has been carried on without regard to the open season in the National League, and the good work started last season for the benefit of the Braves probably will be carried to a satisfactory conclusion.

A light automobile, belonging to Olmore C. Francis of North Cambridge, was stolen from in front of his house. He bought another car and a week after the first theft this car was also taken and from the same place.
