The Giants Continue To Drop Despite Acquisition of Herzog and Sallee

Alexander Wins Another

Brooklyn Has Good Margin in National League Race; Yankees Gain on Red Sox; Extra Inning Games Become Quite Common

The Giants continue to lose and are now in fifth place. They have both Buck Herzog and Sallee on their lineup, but the acquisition of these stars does not seem to give them the necessary punch.

Brooklyn looks like a good bet to win the pennant unless the pitchers crack or some of the stars are injured. Alexander continues to lead in the American league race despite the number of regulars on the injured list.

Extra inning games are becoming quite common in the majors this year.

National League—Sunday. St. Louis, July 23—Rudolph had the best of a pitchers' battle with Steele, and Boston took the last game of the series from St. Louis here today, 2 to 1.

Old-Time Voters. In parts of New Zealand during the seventeenth century voters had to reside in a stone house of the dimensions of 20 feet by 16 feet, with one or more brick chimneys or chimneys. Each voter had also to be certified by his neighbors of sober and peaceful conversation. In Connecticut every candidate for the local assembly had to furnish a certificate from the select men of the town where he resided that he was of quiet and peaceable behavior and civil conversation.

St. John Boy Is Making Good

Tom Daly is Catching and Hitting Well For Cleveland Indians; Press Comments on His Playing

That Tom Daly, a former St. John boy, is making good with Cleveland is evident from the comments appearing in prominent papers in the United States regarding his work since given an opportunity to get into the game.

Ed Bang, who writes for Sporting Life, had the following regarding Tom's playing: "Manager Fohl finally got a chance to look at Tom Daly under fire during the last week, and did fine work. Daly earned fine winter before last by making a home run in the presence of the King of England. He caught for the White Sox in the tour with the Giants."

Commenting on O'Neill's injury and Daly's work the St. Louis Sporting News says: "By the way, the tribe has to go along the last week without Steve O'Neill, the star catcher, he being hurt in the first New York game. Had the thumb of his throwing hand bruised as a result of a bang in throwing to the bases. His accident, however, gave Fohl the opportunity to discover if he had another promising catcher in Tom Daly, who has with one exception, caught every game since Steve was hurt."

At Boston—First game—R. H. E. Detroit, 0; Boston, 1. Batteries—Mitchell and McKee; Shore, Mays, Foster and Cady.

At Washington—R. H. E. Chicago, 0; Washington, 1. Batteries—Benn, Russell and Schalk; Galla, Johnson and Almsmith.

At Boston—First game—R. H. E. Detroit, 0; Boston, 1. Batteries—James, Dubuc and Baker; Leonard and Thomas.

At Philadelphia, both games off-rain.

American League—Sunday. New York, July 23—Tris Speaker's big part in keeping Cleveland in the American league pennant race is shown by averages printed here Saturday, including games played last Wednesday.

SPORT NEWS OF THE DAY HOME AND ABROAD

THE RING. Kid Carter Killed. Stamford, Conn., July 23—Carter Dufrane, formerly known in prize ring circles as "Kid Carter," was killed here Thursday night by contact with an electric light wire while repairing a street light. He was thirty years old.

BASEBALL. That No Hit No Run Game. George Foster's no run, no hit game pitched in June for the world's champions, was remarkable in that it was a game all year, having because of a bad arm, been relegated to duty in the warm-up pen. His throwing now is up to the average and his batting has been fairly strong.

RING. Leonard in Good Condition. New York, July 23—Crafty Benny Leonard will be in first class fighting shape when he bell rings for his battle with Freddie Welsh next week, was the word passed here today. When Welsh and Pollock set the date for the long-sought battle only ten days away, it was rumored around that they had caught the pride of the Harlem unprepared. But word comes from Willie Gibson, the little New Yorker's manager, that Benny has been doing the hardest kind of road work and shadow boxing daily at Mount Kisco, and that he will be right on edge to give the champion the battle of his career.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT. The members of the Lancaster Lawn Tennis Club visited the Drury Cove Athletic Association for a tennis tournament on last Saturday. In spite of Friday's rain the courts were in very fair condition and some keenly contested games were played.

President Harry Hempstead of the New York Giants made the following statement in releasing Mathewson: "I wish to announce the release of Christy Mathewson to the Cincinnati club. My good wishes for his success are mingled with many regrets that he will leave the New York Baseball Club. For so many years the New York public have enjoyed the games in which he has participated, and have given him their unqualified respect, good will and respect."

"The New York fans hold Mathewson with the highest regard, but not more so than I or the entire management of the Giants. His faithful service, his high regard for the organization, have placed him in our hearts as well as in our minds, and there was no thought of relinquishing his services under any circumstances until the Cincinnati Baseball Club requested permission to trade for him to act as their manager. Mathewson expressly requested this privilege, and feeling that it was due him for his past services, under these conditions I most reluctantly consented. I certainly wish him well in his new line of endeavor and trust that his name will stand as high as a manager as it has as a ball player and as a citizen of the United States."
